

Standby Service Agreement

- * I understand that Lincoln Fire & Rescue will follow its normal protocol and may, if so required, divert or substitute resources from the event for which I have requested standby service.
- * If the standby event is canceled, delayed, or postponed, Lincoln Fire & Rescue must be notified at least three hours prior to the agreed location start time or a 2 hour minimum cancellation fee will be assessed.
- * EMS Services performed at the event will be billed to the patient and/or to the patient's insurance company at the normal rates established for these services by the City of Lincoln.
- * The cost for standby service will be calculated 30 minutes prior to the requested on-location time to 30 minutes after the event conclusion. This encompasses travel time to/from the event location and event documentation.
- * Admin Fees are charged to each individual standby event.
- * I agree to remit payment in full within 30 days of invoice.
- * Rates are reviewed and adjusted yearly on September 1st.
