LINCOLN POLICE DEPARTMENT

2004 ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Citizens and Members of the City Council,

As Mayor of Lincoln, it is my pleasure to present the Lincoln Police Department's 2004 Annual Report. This report provides information on the activities, personnel and accomplishments of the department in 2004.

The Lincoln Police Department has done an excellent job solving crimes and working with citizens to deter crime. I am proud to note that we observed a decrease in our crime statistics again this year. I want to commend the citizens of Lincoln for working closely with the Lincoln Police Department to lower our crime rates. We must continue to work together as a community to keep Lincoln one of the safest cities in the nation.

I am very proud of our police department and recognize that it is one of the best in the country. As you look through this annual report I am sure that you will agree. I thank our police officers, our civilian employees, and all those who volunteer for the Lincoln Police Department for their public service to Lincoln

Sincerely,

Coleen J. Seng
Mayor of Lincoln

Mayor Seng,
City Council members,
Fellow citizens:

I am pleased to submit our 2004 Annual Report. It was a remarkable year for the Lincoln Police Department - one of the most memorable during my career. Among the highlights of 2004 were some especially noteworthy accomplishments:

- The crime rate fell by 2.9%, the third consecutive decrease. Our quality problem oriented policing projects played a crucial role. The crime most likely to victimize average Lincoln residents - larceny from auto - dropped 11.6%, the first time anyone can ever remember a decline.
- Officer-involved motor vehicle collisions fell 12% in 2004. Motor vehicle pursuits plummeted 19% in 2004.
- Misdemeanor, felony and narcotics arrests all went up; DWI arrests jumped 22.8% to the highest number since 1990. Traffic tickets increased 25% to the highest number ever.
- The Internal Affairs Unit handled 23 complaints - a record low since the Unit was formed in 1975.
- We achieved national accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies for the fifth time.
- We handled a powder-keg racist rally by the National Socialist Movement without any disruption, disorder, lawsuit or injury.
- We made it under budget again, for the ninth consecutive year after reversing our longstanding pattern of deficit spending.
- We did it all with the smallest police force per capita in Nebraska, and the 171st smallest of 179 police departments in Nebraska and all six of our bordering states.

Above all we worked as a team. Whether sworn or civilian, rookie or veteran, police officer or community member, we pulled together to fulfill our mission of working with other citizens to make Lincoln a safe and secure community. It is a privilege for me to serve with the fine women and men who help make this mission a reality.

Sincerely,

YEAR IN REVIEW

JANUARY

Detective Sergeant Charles 'Chuck' Hennessey, age 59, died January 12, 2004. Sgt. Hennessey was assigned to Technical Investigations Unit supervising the Checks and Frauds division at the time of his death. Sgt. Hennessey had been an officer with the department since 1976.

A gunman robbed the West Gate Bank branch at 84th and Eagle Crest after grabbing an employee as she was walking through the parking lot to open. Once inside the bank the robber also confronted another worker who arrived for work, bound both employees and removed cash from the safe.

FEBRUARY

Nearly 20 inches of snow fell in Lincoln in less than two weeks keeping police busy working accidents, enforcing snow parking bans and staffing the snow emergency center.

An attempted bank robbery was averted after the employee faked a heart attack and the robber was scared off. Officers were able to locate the fleeing vehicle and arrested James Huber, age 40. Huber was found to be responsible for several robberies throughout the U.S.

MARCH

A 34 year old Lincoln man is arrested for attempted sexual assault of a child after a woman from a national watch-dog group posed as a 14 year old girl in an on-line chat room. This case is one of the first high profile cases of 2004 in the rising number of sexual assaults involving adult men who meet their victims on-line.

The Reverend Norman Leach, age 63, is arrested for third-degree sexual assault after molesting a young boy who was a member of the Boy Scout troop that Leach co-founded.

The remains of Carl Bittner, age 39, were located just west of Salt Creek between West A and South Street in a shallow grave. Autopsy results reveal that Bittner was murdered.

APRIL

56 year old Roger Einspahr, a resident of a northwest group home was arrested after stabbing a 5 year old neighbor boy who he had taken into his room in the home. This incident began an inquiry into group home reform.

21 year old UNL student and soccer player, Jenna Cooper, was shot and killed as she stood outside a southeast Lincoln home during an argument between Nolan Jenkins, age 22, and Lucky Iromuanya. Iromuanya, age 22, pulled out a handgun during the argument and fired a shot at Nolan Jenkins which struck him and continued through his body striking Jenna Cooper and killing her.

MAY

Law Enforcement Memorial Week is recognized by the department in a ceremony on the front steps of the Hall of Justice. The Lincoln Police honor guard also attended a statewide ceremony at the Law Enforcement training center in Grand Island.

Officers from the department were sent to Hallam, south of Lincoln on May 22nd in a mutual aid effort after the town and southern Lancaster County was struck by an F-4 tornado. Several officers assisted in evacuating residents throughout the evening.

JUNE

A visit to the capital city by Vice President Dick Cheney required extensive planning and additional staffing to ensure the VP's safety during his overnight trip.

JULY

A white supremacist rally at the State Capitol, organized by the National Socialist Movement, required weeks of planning with multiple agencies and involvement of over 150 Lincoln police officers. The planning and cooperation between all agencies resulted in a well organized response by law enforcement and a non-violent event.

Aurora Castillo-Murillo, age 26 was found murdered in her home at 2918 NW First Street. Rosalio Banuelos, age 26, went to Castillo-Murillo's home to locate his wife, a relative of Aurora Castillo-Murillo and when he could not find his wife he killed Castillo-Murillo. Banuelos was located in Chicago after fleeing Lincoln and was arrested for the murder.

AUGUST

A surge of church burglaries throughout the city this year and a spike in numbers in August are cause for concern. Thirty church burglaries were reported so far this year with half of those in the month of August. Most of the burglaries involved forced entry and the burglar rifling through offices for anything of value. Two men are arrested in connection with the burglaries and the break-ins stop.

SEPTEMBER

All roads led to Lincoln over the Labor Day weekend as visitors to the Star City came to town for the first Husker football game of the season at Memorial Stadium, the State Fair, and Lincoln Saltdogs baseball game. Officers kept busy with increased calls for service and traffic direction around the events.

New streets named for local slain law enforcement officers in the Old Mill Village development were dedicated in a ceremony near SW 12th and West South Street. Family members of some of the slain officers as well as some new neighbors who will live in the development attended the dedication.

Lerodrick Johns, age 19, was shot and killed outside a duplex in a near south neighborhood during a fight. Two Lincoln men were arrested on charges related to the shooting.

OCTOBER

The Lincoln Police Department became reaccredited in 2004 by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies. Assessors from the Commission came to Lincoln to determine if the department could demonstrate that they meet professionally recognized criteria set for law enforcement agencies.

A pattern continues to emerge in bank robberies in Lincoln after the Pinnacle branch bank at S. 27th and Pine Lake Road was robbed. An armed robber followed an employee into the bank as they opened and forced other employees onto the floor. This robbery appears to be committed by the same robber who has hit 11 other banks in Lincoln since 2000.

NOVEMBER

A citywide smoking ban was approved by Lincoln voters prohibiting smoking in all public buildings. The ordinance is set to be enforced January 1st of the new year allowing time for city agencies to coordinate their enforcement efforts.

22 year old Desmond Redstarr of Lincoln was shot and killed outside a residence near 26th and K Streets during an argument with Ronald Grant, age 21. Grant was arrested a short time later for murder.

DECEMBER

A threatening letter containing mercury was sent to the police department a day after the Mayor's office received one. The letter to the department was not opened however and we avoided a costly cleanup. No arrests have been made in connection with the letters.

EXEMPLARY PROGRAMS

PROJECT SAFE NEIGHBORHOODS

In 2004 the Lincoln Police Department applied for and was awarded the Project Safe Neighborhood Grant by the District of Nebraska U.S. Attorney's Office. Project Safe Neighborhoods is a national project to create safer communities by using every available means to reduce gun violence. The program in Lincoln focuses on three main strategies; Home Visits, Saturation Details and Domestic Violence Protection Order Focus.

Home Visits involve the identification of probationers and parolees that live in the focus areas of 13th and "E" and 21st and "G" Streets. Intelligence is gathered on these individuals and shared with officers on the detail at a briefing. Lincoln Police Officers are then paired with probation and parole officers. These teams of officers then make visits to homes of probationers and parolees to ensure that they are in compliance with the terms of their court orders. They are also tested for alcohol and drugs and are subject to having their residences searched. During the 14 details in 2004, 599 home visits were attempted and officers made contact at 69% of the residences. Officers searched 188 homes and completed 159 tests for alcohol and drugs.

Saturations Details involve a focused law enforcement presence within the previously identified areas. This component is designed to send a strong message through a proactive "Zero Tolerance" approach where officers conduct routine patrol activities involving a high number of contacts with the public. Law Enforcement activities from the Home Visits and Saturation Details resulted in numerous contacts and arrests including: 48 warrant arrests, 75 drug related arrests, 160 traffic citations, and over 400 field intelligence reports. Officers were able to complete a high number of home visits and make a high number of citizen contacts through these law enforcement activities.

Domestic Violence Protection Order Focus LPD's Domestic Violence Coordinator visited victims who had filed protection orders to determine if there was any contact with the offender, answer questions, and to offer any additional assistance. During the seven operations there were 56 attempted visits with domestic violence victims with successful contact in 46% of these visits. These visits resulted in numerous positive contacts with victims and lead to two arrests.

Dr. Leigh Culver, University of Nebraska at Omaha, has reviewed the data that we have obtained from this ongoing project. Dr. Culver stated that the evidence indicates a relationship between the reduction in the number of gun and shooting incidents and the specialized law enforcement operations in the two targeted areas.

We feel that we have made a positive impact on these neighborhoods and look forward to continuing and increasing our effort in these neighborhoods in 2005. Every day the men and women of the Lincoln Police Department work extremely hard to make Lincoln Neighborhoods safe. This project has allowed us the ability to further our efforts and make Lincoln's neighborhoods safer.

SWAT

The Lincoln Police Department Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Team was formed in 1975. Six officers were selected for the first SWAT Team with the mission of responding to high-risk situations requiring specialized tactics and coordination. This concept of specialized teams responding to critical incidents began in the late 1960's in Los Angeles out of a response to increased urban violence. The Los Angeles Police Department is credited with christening the first SWAT team and at that time assisted in training SWAT officers throughout the country. After officers were selected for the Lincoln Police Department's SWAT Team they were also sent to Los Angeles to receive formal training.

Over the past thirty years, the Lincoln Police Department's SWAT Teams capabilities have improved through advanced training and better equipment. Today the department's SWAT Team numbers thirteen deployable members, plus a team commander and two assistant team commanders. All of the team members are assigned to various police teams and specialized units within the department and are activated for callouts when needed. All SWAT Team members are on call 24/7 and train an average of 224 hours annually. The training that they receive includes firearms, tactical planning and execution, building entries and searches, hostage negotiations/hostage rescue, warrants and raid planning. The specialized training assists the team in a variety of incidents that they respond to. These incidents are typically reactive in nature and center around barricaded suspects or hostage situations. In addition to these types of incidents the team is used for high-risk warrants and special details and projects.

The Team was activated 11 times in 2004, including 3 barricaded suspects, 6 high-risk search warrants, assisted in the planning and coordination of a citywide bank robbery detail and was on standby duty during the July rally of the National Socialist Movement. All of these cases came to a successful conclusion, with all suspects taken into custody and no serious injury.

The work that these dedicated SWAT Team members do on a daily basis goes mostly unnoticed until a situation deteriorates to the point that they need to be called in. They are called upon to respond and resolve these incidents with the utmost regard to the safety of all officers and citizens and accomplish this task as they have done for the past three decades.

Online Services

The Lincoln Police Department was an early adopter of Internet technology, and maintains a strong presence on the web. The LPD Internet site, though, is not just for public relations and information. Rather, the site is designed to provide citizens with information they can really use to get work done. Interactive applications and valuable resources abound.

As an example, one of the most common reasons people come to the police department is to obtain a copy of a traffic accident report. A decade ago, this task required driving downtown, fighting for a parking spot, waiting in line, and paying a fee. In 1998, we became the first police department in the country to offer these reports instantly via the Internet (and waived the fee!) Today, 1,000 or so fewer people make the trip to police headquarters each month, and insurance claims adjusters tell us that the availability of reports on the web speeds up the claims process by a couple weeks.

Along with accident reports, LPD also provides many other kinds of online services, including:

- Current information about crime in neighborhoods
- Statistical information about crime and arrests
- Stolen property checks
- Information for landlords and property managers
- Criminal history checks
- Recruitment information
- Interactive crime maps

We encourage citizens to visit our website and learn how they can use these resources. The City of Lincoln homepage is a great starting point:

QUALITY SERVICE AUDIT

Since 1993 the Lincoln Police Department has been participating in a survey to gauge citizen satisfaction with the delivery of police services. The Quality Service Audit was developed in conjunction with Gallup, Inc. and it continues to be a valuable tool for both officers and administrators. Officers hired after 1991 are designated as participants in the survey and receive feedback from citizens on their performance. The QSA is a telephone survey which is conducted by student interns and recruit officers. Contact is made with citizens who have had a recent police contact, whether they are a crime victim or the recipient of a traffic ticket. A sample of survey questions and the responses are listed below from the 3,813 surveys which were administered in 2004.

NORTHWEST TEAM

Captain Steve Imes

2004 was a very successful year for officers of Northwest Team. Their efforts in traffic enforcement, criminal investigations and quality of life issues produced very favorable results.

In the criminal arena the Northwest team led the department with a 28.7% clearance rate in Part One crimes. A major factor was the outstanding work of Officer Nate Flood. His persistent efforts resulted in the clearance of 171 larcenies from auto and 24 burglaries. This had a major impact on crime in the NW Team area. In 2004, larceny from auto declined by 21.5% and residential burglaries fell by 26.1%.

Northwest officers have also impacted traffic problems. There was a 16% increase in official citations and a 79% increase in warning tickets. DWI arrests increased by 10%. These efforts contributed to a 12% reduction in traffic accidents.

The Northwest team has seen a significant decrease in the number of wild parties. These parties have been a major disruption to the quality of life in several neighborhoods. The favorable results this year are a culmination of the efforts of the past few years. In addition, more landlords have taken corrective action early to keep parties small and to reduce repeat calls for service. The two most problematic areas of the Team had a major decline in the number of calls for service and in the severity of the calls. We will continue to take aggressive action to insure quiet, safe, neighborhoods.

In 2004, the officers of the Northwest Team conducted forty Problem Oriented Policing Projects. These special projects focused on burglaries, traffic, trespassing, warrants, parking, abandon vehicles and abandon property. They were selected because of their impact on citizens working and living in the area. In the coming year we will continue to identify problems and work to resolve them.

NORTHEAST TEAM

Captain Doug Srb

2004 was a year of change for the Northeast Police Team. But amidst the change, balance was maintained by renewal and confirmation of old ties that are critical to our success. The following are some examples of change and renewal that were met by the Northeast Team in 2004:

Due largely to creation of an annual seniority bid process, the Northeast Team saw an approximate 33% change in personnel at the end of 2004. No fewer than 14 team officers were replaced by fresh faces to begin 2005. Additionally, two of the six sergeants acting as team supervisors were replaced as well. While we remain excited about the prospect of new energy and ideas coming to the team, certain challenges also come. Change on this scale requires good communication and leadership to assure progress toward team goals. We remain confident this change will ultimately benefit the residents of Northeast Lincoln.

Each year a major amount of effort goes toward providing police service to Northeast High School and the surrounding neighborhood. 2004 was a time of great change for Northeast High. The opening of Northstar High caused a large drop in student population at Northeast. This eased the burden of policing the school and surrounding area by the drop in numbers. Officer Rich Hubka was named the newest School Resource Officer at Northeast High during 2004, and he will strive to maintain relationships built in the past with the school and surrounding neighborhood.

Traffic enforcement remains a concern in Northeast Lincoln. During 2004 the Northeast Team began a year long special project to emphasize traffic enforcement by devoting committed officer time to the effort. The result of this action was an enforcement level that corresponded to a noticeable drop in the Northeast Lincoln reportable accident rate of 13-15% for the year. Plans for the coming year include the devotion of a full time officer toward traffic enforcement duties.

Renewal during 2004 included renovation of two substations located in Northeast Lincoln. Both Meadowlane and University Place Substations received facelifts with new paint, carpeting, furniture and technology upgrades. A portion of the resources expended on these projects were donated by the communities surrounding the substations. We hope these renovations will signal our intent of long term commitment to the neighborhoods.

As we end the year 2004, we look forward with confidence to the challenges to come in 2005.

SOUTHWEST TEAM

Captain Bob Wilhelm

The Southwest Team had another challenging and productive year in our efforts to provide top quality law enforcement services to our neighborhoods and citizens. This year we worked to find solutions to problems facing the Capitol Avenue neighborhood. This is a very densely populated area that is culturally diverse and challenged by the high volume of police incidents that negatively impact the quality of life for its residents. We began the year by identifying potential partners that could help improve the circumstances in this neighborhood.

We participated in discussions with the Mayor's office, the Mayor's Clergy group, Retro Rockers and Urban Development. We also consulted with Michael Sparks who is a nationally known academician/specialist in revitalizing deteriorating neighborhoods. As a result of these discussions our team embarked on a plan that involved neighborhood meetings with small groups of residents. These meetings were well attended by groups in this area with concerns and issues discussed. Although our efforts in this neighborhood are still proceeding we have increased the willingness of some residents to contact and talk with the police.

Our efforts throughout the team resulted in astonishing increases in arrests for narcotics and weapons violations. Our officers made 41% more weapons arrests and 42% more narcotics arrests than they did in the previous year. This can be attributed to additional efforts directed at problem locations and a focus on trying to impact street level criminal activity. In addition our officers made 186 arrests for Driving While Intoxicated which was an increase of 46% from 2003. If enforcement of these types of offenses are indicative of a safe environment then the Southwest Team was a safer place to be in 2004.

The team spent a significant amount of time trying to help those in need of the diminishing mental health services available to them. This effort was achieved by thoughtful and thorough mental health investigations by our officers and by challenging providers to accept more responsibility for their clients and encouraging them to provide detailed plans and solutions for the clients when in crisis.

This wouldn't be a report summarizing a year in Southwest Lincoln if we didn't talk about our continued commitment to neighborhoods and neighborhood organizations. This year our officers attended many neighborhood meetings and other functions such as block parties and neighborhood watch gatherings. By our efforts at getting out of the cruisers and talking with residents we are experiencing the face to face communication with the community, and that is the main ingredient for gaining their trust and support.

SOUTHEAST TEAM

Captain Kim Koluch

In February, Officer Pat McGuire responded to the area of 70th & Van Dorn after the report of an attempted abduction and foiled bank robbery attempt. Officer McGuire spotted the suspect's vehicle and stopped it. The robber was armed with a handgun and a fake bomb. The suspect in this case was wanted in at least two other states for several bank robberies where a lone gunman had robbed banks by threatening the use of a bomb, and there is little doubt that had he not been arrested, his crime spree would have continued.

In May, at the invitation of Union College, the Southeast Team established a workstation for officers at 3645 S. 51st Street. The office space made available by Union College provides officers with a work area to make phone calls, write reports and conduct case investigation follow up. In addition to providing needed work space, this community partnership gives officers an opportunity to become more familiar with the needs of the College View neighborhood.

In June, Officer Ed Simpson located a suspicious vehicle possibly involved in a school vandalism. The driver was uncooperative but Officer Simpson was able to search the car obtaining enough evidence to make an arrest. As the investigation continued an additional seven school vandalisms were reported. Subsequently, Officer Simpson's initial work on this case led to the arrest of three other individuals and cleared all eight vandalisms.

Officer Monico has always made it a priority to get drunk drivers off the street, and in 2004, he made 96 arrests for driving while intoxicated; his performance in this area always puts him at or near the top of DWI arrests for the year. Officer Monico's efforts were recognized by Mother's Against Drunk Driving, and his diligence undoubtedly helped to make the streets of Lincoln a safer place to drive.

Accidents make up over 13% of the total workload for the Southeast Team. With that in mind, Southeast Team second shift officer's set a goal for the year to reduce the number of traffic accidents and promote traffic safety. To help achieve this goal the squad completed two major traffic projects, one in June and one in December. The June project generated 279 traffic tickets and 23 misdemeanor arrests and the December project resulted in 768 traffic tickets, 55 misdemeanor arrests and one felony arrest. Total accidents were reduced in 2004, and considering the amount of growth and increased traffic on the Southeast Team area this is a job very well done.

In the coming year, Southeast Team officers look forward to providing the citizens of southeast Lincoln with the type of quality police services they have come to expect.

CENTER TEAM

Captain Joy Citta

Community

The Police Youth Advisory board continues into its 5th year with 12 juniors and seniors from area high schools. They meet October through May and have been willing to participate as a sounding board on issues affecting the police department.

The Center Team Community Forum is the longest standing community group at LPD. Meeting continuously since 1996 they continue to bring advice and information to the team supervisors about business and neighborhood needs.

Neighborhood Revitalization

We continue our efforts with the Head Start Free to Grow program and neighborhood revitalization. In conjunction with a number of partner agencies and residents, the Clinton neighborhoods have seen a decrease in crime and the quality of life improve, block by block. These partnerships involve working together to make better neighborhoods. Sgt. Bob Ziemer presided over the grilling at several neighborhood barbecues and officers delivered toys, and blankets to families with the help of Santa Cop at Christmas. These partnerships have been valuable in finding new and innovative ways to help families one block at a time.

Center Team Officers continue their work with our schools, neighborhoods and business. They spend many hours working with other agencies in a variety of ways. A few of the officers who worked with other agencies are Officer Charlie Marti who makes daily visits to Matt Talbot so their clients have access to a police officer should they need a crime reported or have a need for a police officer. Officer Sid Yardley was chosen by Foundation for Lincoln Public Schools as one of their Gold Star Award recipients for the work he does daily with Clinton School children and families. Officers Conan Schafer and Jill Schmidt spent time at the Hispanic Center providing information to their clients.
