ANNOT.: The additional regulation as to non-use and forfeiture were additional requirements, not in conflict with state statute, and therefore the City of Lincoln was not precluded from enacting and enforcing this section. Bali Hai, Inc. v. Nebr. Liquor Control Commission, 195 Neb. 2, 236 N.W.2d 614 (1975).

The action of the Lincoln City Council in enacting this section was clearly within its local regulatory powers. Id.

The action of a municipal body revoking the liquor license is not final or effective until that body's action is either affirmed by the Liquor Control Commission on appeal, or until the licensee has acquiesced by failing to take an appeal. Id.

The power to regulate and control traffic in liquor necessarily confers the powers to refuse a license or limit the number of licenses granted. Id.

(Ord. 15454 §29; March 5, 1990: P.C. §6.08.350: Ord. 14385 §31; May 12, 1986: prior Ord. 8182 §7; September 9, 1963).

The violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or the violation of any other ordinances of the City of Lincoln, or the laws of the State of Nebraska, in connection with the operation of the licensed business by the licensee or any employees or agents of the licensee, shall be cause sufficient to justify the revocation or suspension of the license of such licensee by the City Council. Such revocation or suspension shall be cumulative with the in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed by the ordinance of the City of Lincoln. (Ord. 15454 §30; March 5, 1990: P.C. §6.08.360: Ord. 13478 §1; October 25, 1982: prior Ord. 8182 §8; September 9, 1963).
