Mayor Mike Johanns
Members of the City Council
Fellow Citizens of Lincoln:

I am pleased to submit the 1995 Annual Report of the Lincoln Police Department. This report provides an excellent historical resource of important data and information about police services over time, as well as an opportunity for us to highlight some of the milestones of 1995.

During the past year, we have continued to apply our diverse talents to enhancing and protecting the quality of life we all enjoy in Lincoln. I am especially pleased with the numerous problem-oriented policing (POP) projects organized and managed by our field personnel during 1995. These projects seek to resolve intractable problems by organizing community resources, including those of the police department, to impact issues that have defied more traditional police efforts. Both the quantity and quality of our POP projects continue to improve.

Within the past two years, we have added twenty-seven police officers to our authorized strength. We are grateful for the financial commitment necessary to bring the police force up to a level more in keeping with the demands of the 1990s. Policing in Lincoln is on the cusp of significant change. As this report goes to print, several major projects are taking shape which will help us change, adapt, and prepare as we approach the twenty-first century:

- We are planning for a new police facility, scheduled to open in early 1999.
- We are completing a massive re-engineering of our radio communications system backbone.
- We are planning for the implementation of mobile data applications in patrol cars.
- We are exploring opportunities for further collaboration with the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office as we anticipate co-location of our headquarters.
- We are continuing to expand and improve our cultural diversity efforts in recruitment, selection, liaison with community centers, and training.

I am immensely proud to lead the women and men of the Lincoln Police Department. Hardly a day passes during which an officers' initiative, skill, knowledge, or courage results in a truly remarkable performance of duty. While many of these moments of excellence result in awards and accolades, countless others take place which never come to official attention, and pass with little or no acknowledgment. It is my privilege to express my deep gratitude to the officers and employees of the Lincoln Police Department for a job well done during 1995.

Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS)

Technological advances are giving the police capabilities never before imagined. According to ID Lab Coordinator Marlin Rauscher, the Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS) is a "tremendous tool" for helping to identify persons responsible for crime.

As part of Governor Nelson's Crime Bill, funding for AFIS was approved by the legislature in 1995. By August, the Lincoln Police Department had the necessary equipment in place and started utilizing the statewide system. There are only three agencies in Nebraska with similar capabilities.

AFIS allows for the comparison of fingerprints based on similar characteristics. The existing data base includes approximately 1.5 million individual fingerprints. When a fingerprint is collected at a crime scene, it can now be entered into the computer and a search will be completed within seconds. Prior to AFIS, all comparisons had to be conducted manually.

With AFIS in place, a total of 16 cases have been cleared and 77 prints identified. The data base will expand soon as we interface with nearby AFIS states.

Digital Imaging System

During 1995, another advancement was made in the area of identification. A new Digital Imaging System is being used to take photographs of arrested persons. Individuals booked into the Lancaster County Correctional Facility no longer have a "mug shot" taken. Instead, their image is photographed and placed in a computer. As needed, photographs can be printed off in quality similar to that of a 35mm photo.

The Digital Imaging System also allows investigators to search for persons based on physical descriptors. Numerous descriptors can be entered into the computer and a list of persons matching those characteristics will appear. The system will also create photo line-ups for crime victims.

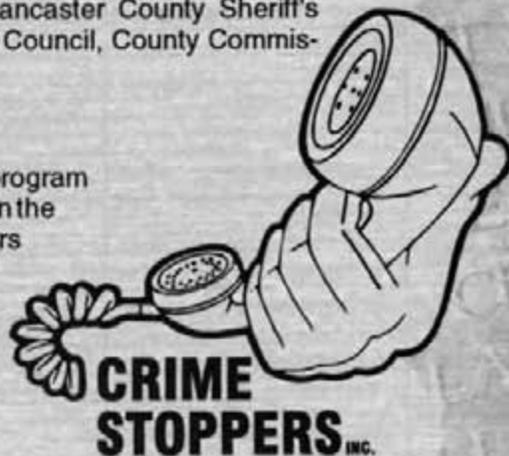

Obtaining the Digital Imaging System was a year-long project that combined the efforts of numerous agencies including the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office, Attention Center, Information Services, City Council, County Commissioners, and Lancaster County Corrections.

Crime Stoppers

The Lincoln/Lancaster County Crime Stoppers program has been one of the most successful and productive in the country. Since its inception in 1980, Crime Stoppers has helped to solve 4,245 cases (including six homicides) and recover 5.6 million dollars in drugs and stolen property.

Crime Stoppers is an avenue for persons to anonymously call and give information on unsolved crimes. If the information assists in clearing the crime, a reward of up to $1,000 may be granted to the caller. During the existence of the Lincoln/Lancaster County Crime Stoppers program, over $132,000 has been authorized for payments. All of the funding for Crime Stoppers has come from private and business donations, foundations, and civic organizations.

The program has changed considerably since it began 15 years ago. During its first year, Crime Stoppers received 36 calls and nine cases were solved. By comparison, in 1995 there were 964 calls received and 462 cases solved. The increase in productivity can partly be attributed to widespread media coverage which helps to generate calls from the public.

The Crime Stoppers board includes 16 citizens and one law enforcement coordinator, Lt. Lee Wagner. During 1995, Crime Stoppers added 11 students to the board as representatives from area high schools. The expansion into the schools will allow Lincoln youth to become involved and have more input into the program.

Quality Service Audit

The Lincoln Police Department is actively participating in a survey which is designed to gauge citizen satisfaction with the delivery of police services. The survey, known as the Quality Service Audit, was initially developed in 1993 in collaboration with Gallup, Inc.

All officers hired in the past few years are automatically part of the survey. Once the results are collected, participating officers receive feedback on their performance. Currently, there are approximately 77 officers who receive monthly results from the Quality Service Audit.

During the past year, 6,713 citizens were contacted by telephone and surveyed. Beginning in 1996 survey questions will expand to include a wider variety of police contacts.

Northwest Center Team

Northwest Center Team Symposium - April 21, 1995

Captain James Peschong and the Northwest Center Team arranged for a symposium which set out to "involve the community in its policing efforts." This was an effort to bring together personnel who police the NWC Team, and community members from the team area. The purpose was to provide interaction between the two groups and discover the really important police needs of the community.

A variety of individuals and groups were contacted and invited to participate in the day-long event including neighborhood organizations, business associations, four community centers, public schools, and members of the City Council.

The symposium had 106 persons who attended and worked together in small groups to identify community issues. Once the main issues were pinpointed, action plans were developed to address the concerns. The NWC Team now uses these action plans in their policing efforts.

Captain Peschong

Northwest Center Forum

In June, the NWC Team established a "NWC Team Forum" which incorporates a group of community members that represent a variety of interests. The NWC Team Forum has 25 members including 15 from the community and 10 from the team's management staff.

The forum meets every 90 days and discusses LPD policing efforts and problems solving plans. The objective of the group is to serve as a sounding board for the team managers by enhancing an effective communications link. Members of the forum are also charged with educating their constituents about police efforts and procedures.

Northeast Team

Northeast Community Policing Center

Captain Jon Briggs established community based problem-oriented policing as a priority for the Northeast Team in 1991. The concept of community based policing suggests that the best method for resolving community/neighborhood problems is through active communication. Team work between those affected by the problem and law enforcement is a vital component of community based policing.

To further the efforts of this policing concept, Captain Jon Briggs identified the need for a Community Policing Center. The center would differ significantly from the traditional police substation which officers use for conducting telephone calls, writing reports, and utilizing computer terminals.

After months of preparation, the Northeast Community Policing Center was established in the Meadowlane Shopping Center at 900 No. 70th St. An open house was held and its doors officially opened on September 10, 1995.

The center offers a wide range of services including regular office hours when a police official is able to provide services usually offered at headquarters. These services include crime reports, bike registrations, case investigation updates, and crime prevention information.

The community has responded positively to the new policing center which is currently the only police facility of its kind in the city of Lincoln.

Summer Program

In the early summer of 1995, the two School Resource officers assigned to the Southwest Team held a three-week summer program serving approximately 30 Lincoln youth. The program was for 6-8th graders and was held for half a day, five days a week. The focus was to teach alternatives to crime and drugs, provide wholesome and educational activities, and to have lunch.

The program was quite successful and popular among the youth attending and there was a high attendance rate. Creation of the program by Officer Blase and Officer Lacy was "out of dust" and was run with contributions and volunteers. It was sufficiently successful that the officers received the Mayor's Award of Excellence and the program will be continued in the future. As a side note, some children said that the meal served was the only they received that day and many asked if they could return next year.

Captain Beggs

Larcenies from Auto

In late 1994 and early 1995, weekly larcenies from auto offenses rose from about 10 per week to 25-30 per week. During the year of 1995, we conducted four POP (problem-oriented policing) projects targeting larcenies from auto. These had success in different ways. It produced considerable intelligence information, identified a couple of methods being used by the perpetrators, produced some arrests and recoveries, and increased officer awareness of the problem. The project helped reduce the larcenies from auto offenses back to around 10 per week while other parts of the city continue to record double or triple that amount.

City Parks

During the spring and fall, POP projects were conducted in Cooper Park and Irvingdale Park targeting after school activity and late night activity. Both created credibility with the neighbors who were experiencing troubles in the park. The project helped reduce problematic youth activities in the parks.

Southeast Team

Underage Drinkers

In July of 1995, officers of the Southeast Team initiated a project to impact the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages by juveniles in southeast Lincoln. Letters were distributed to over 8,000 households in the city soliciting the support of parents, and students with this problem. The issues were also discussed with the media.

Officers contacted the retail liquor outlets to set up a "COPS in SHOPS" project. Southeast Team officers worked side-by-side with retailers on eight weekends to help educate them on checking identification. To deter minors, signs were posted at the businesses warning minors that "LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS MAY BE PRESENT."

As a result of the project, numerous minors were arrested for attempting to purchase alcohol. One adult was prosecuted for purchasing alcohol for minors. Several weeks later, a reverse sting project was initiated and seven retail liquor outlets were written up for selling alcoholic beverages to minors. Our efforts will continue.

Criminal Investigations

Southeast Lincoln was the scene of two significant investigations. The body of Martina McMenamin was found in her south Lincoln apartment on July 25, 1995. Michael Schmader turned up missing in October. His partially buried body was found two months later in a culvert at 48th & Normal. These ongoing homicides have resulted in thousands of hours of subsequent investigation by officers and detectives.

Aquatics Center

The southeast area of Lincoln presently hosts the two most frequented public swimming pools; Woods Pool at 33rd and "J" Street and Eden Pool at 46th and Antelope Creek Road. In the spring of 1996, the new Parks and Recreation Aquatics Center, "Star City Shores," will open at 27th and Highway 2. We believe this center will also attract many of Lincoln's young adults.

Criminal Investigations Team

Counterfeit Investigations

The Criminal Investigations Team has participated in several counterfeit investigations involving money, travelers checks, and corporate checks.

In June, an investigation involving counterfeit corporate checks began. The checks started appearing at local banks and amounted to a $79,000 loss. The case came to a successful conclusion and one person was arrested.

A second counterfeit investigation started in October which also involved corporate counterfeit checks. These checks were appearing in banks and grocery stores in both Omaha and Lincoln. When checks were identified as counterfeit, a fax was sent to area motels, banks, grocery stores, and businesses to alert individuals to the situation. As a result of one of the motel faxes, several suspects staying at a local motel were identified and a search warrant was conducted. The investigation, which also involves the Secret Service, is still being conducted.

Captain Rowe

Burglary Investigations

Several significant burglary investigations were conducted which involved multiple offense reports and high dollar losses. One group of burglaries actually started in 1994 and in October of 1995, an officer contacted an individual who had just committed a residential burglary. He was arrested for this offense and a search of his residence revealed a considerable amount of stolen goods. The subsequent criminal investigation linked the suspect to 20 burglaries in which property valued at $38,831 was taken.

A second set of burglaries were occurring which involved a suspect who was making entry into residences through sliding patio doors. A suspect was identified when stolen jewelry items started to be pawned. A surveillance detail was organized and the suspect's vehicle description was provided to uniform officers.

As the detail was about to begin, a burglary in progress call was received and the suspect arrested. A search of his residence revealed "car loads" of stolen property. As a result of the investigation, the suspect was linked to 39 burglaries in which property valued at $91,376 was reported stolen.
