

COUNCILMAN JAMES MICHAEL BOWERS
NORTHEAST CITIZENS' MEETING
THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2021

Pat Lopez, Director,
Lincoln Lancaster County Health Department

Please join us Thursday, January 21, 2021, from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. as Pat Lopez, Director, Lincoln Lancaster County Health Department, will be providing information on COVID-19 Vaccines.

A public health practitioner for over 40 years, Ms. Lopez's passion and excellence for public health in Nebraska is unmatched. Her vision is to promote public health, develop solutions to important social and health issues, and provide prevention services and policies that improve the health of the public.

Pat began her public health career at the Lincoln-Lancaster County Health Department (LLCHD) in 1975 as a Public Health Nurse (PHN) I in the Community Health Services Division and moved through the ranks to PHN II, Community Development Coordinator, Assistant Manager, and Manager until her retirement from the Health Department in 2004.

In June 2019, Pat came back to LLCHD, initially as the Interim Health Director and now the Health Director. In recent months, Pat's life has been consumed by leading the City and County through the COVID-19 pandemic. Pat was well prepared to take on this challenge of a lifetime.

Pat is a native Nebraskan. She and her husband Joe have one daughter, Nicole (Neil), and two exceptional grandsons.
