What to look for?

- Person(s) taking notes, drawings, photos, or videos of your business
- Person(s) attempting to gain information in person, by phone, or by email about your business operations (specifically about security measures and personnel)
- Person(s) conducting surveillance of self-service areas (i.e., salad bars, condiment areas, and open bulk containers)
- Person(s) attempting to gain access to restricted or unauthorized areas
- Thefts of employee uniforms, badges, or packaging labels
- Employees changing working behavior or working irregular hours
- Unattended vehicles illegally parked near your business
- Unattended items (e.g., backpacks, boxes) within or near your business

What can you do?

- Notify management if you observe something suspicious
- Secure open containers of food or ingredients in food preparation areas appropriately
- Control access of all employees, delivery personnel, and patrons to food storage and preparation areas
- Keep doors locked as appropriate and prevent access to food preparation and storage areas, including loading docks
- Monitor self-service areas (i.e., salad bars, condiment areas, open bulk containers) for evidence of tampering
- Monitor products for retail sale for evidence of tampering (i.e., damaged packages, evidence of resealing of packages, leaking packages)
- Monitor the security of the premises as appropriate
- Conduct background checks on employees
- Train employees on awareness of suspicious activity and reporting procedures
