

Genelle Moore

In 2017, after a 34-year policing career serving the Lincoln community, Ms. Moore retired as a Captain with the Lincoln Police Department. During her time with LPD, she spent 12 years as a Captain and gained considerable experience in patrol, commanding the North West Geographic Patrol District, and recruiting and training as the Commander overseeing the Personnel and Education Unit.

Genelle holds a Baccalaureate Degree in Organizational Management from Concordia University, and a Master's Degree in Justice Administration and Crime Management from Bellevue University. In 2010, Genelle attended the 242nd Session of the FBI National Academy, in Quantico, Virginia. She has also completed the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Leadership in Police Organizations and Blue Courage.

Since March 2017, she has been employed by Lincoln Public Schools as Background Investigator and Human Resources Specialist.