

TOWN HALL

with Councilman Tom Duden

Wednesday, March 18, 2026 at 6:30 p.m.

Charles H. Gere Library
2400 South 56th Street

Southeast District 2 Town Hall Meetings take place monthly on third Wednesdays. Hosted by City Councilman Tom Duden, these meetings are open to all. Town halls are an opportunity to discuss upcoming projects and citizen concerns. Featured guest speakers from the community and government present on a wide range of subjects impacting Lincoln.

Topic: Business Growth in Lincoln

Guest: Lincoln Zehr

President & CEO, LIBA

Join Councilman Duden for a community town hall meeting focused on small business growth in Lincoln. Featured guest Lincoln Zehr of the Lincoln Independent Business Association (LIBA) will share insights, challenges, and opportunities for local entrepreneurs. LIBA is a member-driven organization dedicated to supporting, advocating for, and connecting independent businesses through resources, networking, and policy engagement. Attendees will have the chance to ask questions, exchange ideas, and discuss strategies to strengthen Lincoln's local economy. This event welcomes business owners, community members, and anyone interested in fostering sustainable economic development and growth.
