

Submitted via email.
July 16, 2015

Nebraska is behind in the proactive environmental movement to generate wind energy. Considering that we are one of the windiest cities in the nation, we should be at the forefront of its development in our state. Please support citizens' efforts to look toward the future with wind, solar, and other renewable resources.
Lisa Fricke, Omaha