

Submitted via email.
July 7, 2015

As President of the Lancaster County Farm Bureau I was asked to write a letter about the proposed wind energy project in southern Lancaster County. Due to our diverse membership we do not wish to comment on this other than to say that under the policies of the Nebraska Farm Bureau the policies state that there is support for wind turbine farms in the State of Nebraska and encourage the use of renewable energy sources.

Rod Hollman, President, Lancaster County Farm Bureau.