Lincoln Police
Department
2005 Annual Report

Dear Citizens and Members of the City Council,

As Mayor of Lincoln, it is my pleasure to present the Lincoln Police Department's annual report for 2005. This report provides information on the personnel, activities and accomplishments of the Police Department over the past year.

The Lincoln Police Department continues to do an excellent job in providing service to the citizens of our community. LPD constantly strives to make an impact on crime, and once again, crime statistics decreased. It is only with the help of residents and their continued involvement with LPD that we are able to keep our crime rates low. We all must continue to work together as a community to keep Lincoln one of the safest cities in the nation.

The Lincoln Police Department is well-trained at being prepared and handling the unexpected. Those traits were put to the test in 2005 as a water main break flooded its offices. Quick thinking prevented the loss of crucial evidence and kept the damage totals from climbing higher. Most importantly, LPD's ability to respond to those needing help in the community was never compromised. LPD not only survived this challenge, but rose above it.

This community can take great pride in our Police Department. It truly is one of the finest in the nation, and as you look through this annual report, I am sure you will agree. Please join me in thanking our Police Officers, the LPD civilian employees, and all those who volunteer for the Department for their public service to Lincoln.

Sincerely,

Department
2005 Annual Report

Mayor Seng,
City Council members,
Fellow citizens:

I am pleased to submit the annual report of the Lincoln Police Department for 2005. This report is a valuable reference as well as historical documentation of the department's work.

When the current employees look back on 2005, we will undoubtedly remember it as the year of the flood. On the night of September 14, a broken water main flooded over 40,000 square feet of police headquarters with water and mud. The damage that ensued was monumental. The entire County City Building was put out of service, including the City's Emergency Communications Center and police headquarters. Quick work by police employees minimized damage to critical equipment and evidence that would have been catastrophic. Advance planning for emergencies and backup facilities for the police and 911 at the Center Team Police Station and Fire Station 14 proved their worth through the crisis. Not a single phone call was missed, not a single police response delayed. It took almost 4 months to completely rehabilitate the building, but just before Christmas, we were back in business at headquarters.

During 2005, planning for our next full-service police substation focused on the possibility of participating in a redevelopment project underway in the University Place Neighborhood in northeast Lincoln. While the plan has not been finalized, the public discussion has brought to light something the department has known for many years: it simply is no longer practical to deploy our officers from a downtown headquarters. Over the next ten to fifteen years, it is almost inevitable that several substations similar to the Center Team Police Station at 27th and Holdrege Street will emerge. As the City and department continue to grow, planning and funding this will be an increasing challenge.

No challenge was greater in 2005, however, than combating violent crime and the impact the drug methamphetamine has on the community. This remains our top priority. Our primary need continues to be personnel. Lincoln has an unusually small police department—the smallest per capita in the State, one of the smallest in Nebraska and all our bordering States. Our longstanding goal has been to increase the size of the department to about 1.5 police officers per 1,000 population—still far below average, but much more appropriate for the services Lincoln's residents expect and deserve.

I continue to be immensely impressed not only by the efficiency, but especially by the quality of work performed every day by the women and men of this department. It is an honor for me to serve with them, and for all of us to serve the citizens of Lincoln.

Sincerely,

YEAR IN REVIEW

JANUARY

A citywide smoking ban, approved by Lincoln voters prohibiting smoking in all public buildings went into effect on the first day of 2005. Officers responded to few complaints and compliance was very good throughout the year.

Within the first few hours of a department-wide robbery detail, officers arrested 29 year old Roosevelt Erving during the commission of his 13th bank robbery. Roosevelt Erving had robbed a total of 8 banks, 12 times since July 6, 2000.

FEBRUARY

A vehicle driven at a high rate of speed by Antonio Banks, 24, lost control on Cornhusker Highway at Yolande and crossed the median striking two other vehicles. A passenger in Banks' vehicle was killed as well as several others critically injured. Banks had been smoking crack cocaine and drinking in the hours before the accident. Banks was charged with manslaughter.

MARCH

The command staff of the department hosts Employee Appreciation Day at 'Cafe la Policia', the converted police classrooms, to say 'Thanks for a job well done' to all employees.

APRIL

Rick Hamilton, a 48 year old homeless man, was found beaten to death under a West 'O' Street Bridge a few blocks from the City Mission. Edward Farley, age 30, was arrested for 1st Degree Murder in the beating death and Ray Farley Jr, age 47 was arrested for Accessory to a Felony in the death.

The motor patrol of the 70's was brought back this month when members of the Traffic Enforcement Unit began patrolling the city streets on six new Harley Davidson motorcycles.

MAY

National Law Enforcement Memorial Week is recognized statewide as well as at a ceremony on the front steps of the Hall of Justice. Mayor Seng honored local law enforcement and Nebraska U.S. Attorney Mike Heavican was the keynote speaker.

Officers from LPD participated in the 19th Nebraska Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics. The torch run began in Scottsbluff with over 300 runners from law enforcement agencies throughout the state and covered 625 miles. The Torch Run raised $169,000 for Special Olympics.

JUNE

The police department, as well as multiple local and federal agencies, assisted in the investigation and evacuation of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services building after a suspicious powdery substance was located in the file room of the building. Several employees reported symptoms and had to be decontaminated and examined at the hospital. Results of testing on the powder showed that it didn't pose a public health threat.

Vandals targeted the Cupid statue in the Antelope Park Rose Garden destroying the $25,000 statue. This was the second time that the statue was targeted with the first occurring about two years. No arrests have been made in connection with the incident at this time.

JULY

Earl Hayes Jr, age 27, assaulted his former wife and her boyfriend and abducted his five year old son prompting Lincoln's first Amber Alert. Hayes Jr. turned himself in to Topeka, Kansas police and his son was located in a parking lot there with two women who were with him. The boy was unharmed during the ordeal and Hayes Jr. was arrested and charged in connection with the assaults and the abduction.

AUGUST

As the school year begins, officers respond to 53 party disturbances the first weekend of the start of college classes. The 'Party Patrol' was also utilized to respond to these party complaints and assisted in writing some of the 75 tickets that were issued during the two nights. The detail was also conducted the following weekend and 155 tickets for misdemeanor alcohol related offenses were issued those nights. The police department continues to use this concentrated effort of enforcement to reduce party disturbances in the city.

Residents from local neighborhood watch groups, the police and elected officials throw crime, drugs and violence a 'going away party' as the 22nd Annual National Night Out is recognized. National Night Out is observed on the first Tuesday in August and gives citizens and police a chance to join together and show their neighborhood spirit and community partnership.

The department investigated the shooting death of 20 year old Robert Herndon, who died outside his home at 220 Carolyn Court. Antonio L. Banks, age 25, and Victor J. Young III, age 22, were both arrested for 1st Degree Murder in the death. John A. Montgomery, age 23, was also arrested for conspiracy to commit murder in connection with the homicide.

SEPTEMBER

A water main break at the Hall of Justice forces the police, sheriff's office and 911 dispatch services to evacuate when the entire bottom floor is flooded with water and mud. The police department set up a main operations center in the North 27th Street Center Team Station and team officers operated out of team substations throughout the city until we were able to move back in December.

EXEMPLARY PROGRAMS

LPD Motorcycle Unit

The Lincoln Police Department discontinued its Motorcycle Unit in the late 1970's and debate has continued since that time on whether they should be reinstated. That debate ended in 2005, when LPD made the decision to acquire six motorcycles to be utilized by officers in the Traffic Enforcement Unit. One of the final factors in making the decision to acquire motorcycles was when the Management Services Unit surveyed every municipal police department in the United States with a population from 50,000 less than Lincoln to 50,000 greater. LPD was the only agency not employing police motorcycles. The department took advantage of a very attractive lease offer from Frontier Harley Davidson and obtained six 2005 Harley Davidson Electra Glide Motorcycles that were accessorized with police equipment, which included the warning lights and siren systems.

The police motorcycles were delivered to LPD in April of 2005 and the officers were certified as "Police Motor Operators" by Northwestern University's Certified Police Motor Officer Program. April 18th was the day the motors made their maiden voyage on the city streets. Sergeant Dan Schmidt supervises the motor officer program and Officer Jeff Hillabrand has become a certified instructor through the Northwestern University program. The motor officers are required to certify annually as operators and they also attend training sessions monthly.

As the number of special events and the overall density of traffic have increased in the Capitol City, the need for maneuverability has grown. The motorcycles allow officers to accomplish this and have enabled them to pursue and catch violators, where in the past they would not have been able to. This has been accomplished so much in fact, that official traffic citations written by the traffic unit increased 30% and warning citations showed an increase of 70.9% in 2005. This increased production accompanied several community service projects conducted by the motor officers such as presentations at schools and neighborhood association meetings. The motorcycle officers also provided several escorts at special events such as the Lincoln Marathon and the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics. The negatives that were discussed prior to acquiring the motorcycles have thus far not been realized as no motor officers have been involved in accidents and the motors have been ridden every month throughout the year.

Spanish-Speaking Outreach

In 2005 the police department furthered its attempts at reaching out to the Spanish speaking community through two new positions. A Community Outreach Specialist/Spanish interpreter position was filled by Erica Birky Rios and a bilingual advocate position in our Victim/Witness Unit was filled by Auxi Mazza.

Erica Birky Rios came to the department after previously having been a Spanish teacher and Spanish and French Interpreter with LPS. She was also the Education and Domestic Violence Outreach Coordinator at the Hispanic Community Center. This new position encompasses a wide range of roles including interpreting for officers and other LPD staff, fielding law enforcement related questions from Spanish-speaking members of the community, providing educational outreach on law enforcement-related issues and collaborating with other criminal justice agencies to improve language access services. A great deal of time during the first year of this position has involved translation of key documents such as the citation form and a Domestic Violence Services for Latinas brochure. The majority of Erica's time involves taking phone calls from Spanish speakers, most often relating to traffic citations or incidents regarding minors. The crime prevention and education phase of this position is in its beginning stages. The primary focus of the position up until the present has been on domestic violence services for new immigrant and refugee women who are Spanish speaking. The Outreach Specialist will continue these services and expand in the next year to bring about a series of community forums for the Spanish speaking community to help educate new immigrants regarding their rights and responsibilities in the community. There are also plans to develop a tutoring/community outreach program with Spanish speaking officers who wish to increase their language skills. On behalf of the Spanish speaking immigrant community, Erica is very thankful that the Lincoln Police Department is now providing these Spanish language access services and also feels extremely privileged to be able to assist the community in better understanding law enforcement-related issues.

Auxi Mazza is our bilingual advocate with the Victim/Witness Unit. Auxi Mazza is from Rota, Spain and graduated from the University of Cadiz in Spain with a degree in History and Secondary Education having taught grade school classes in Spain. Auxi has lived in Nebraska for eleven years and is currently preparing to take her test to become a US Citizen. The bilingual advocate provides outreach to Latino women victims of domestic violence as well as victims of other crimes. Crisis intervention services as well as assistance on protection orders are also provided. This year has been one of learning for Auxi. She has had to learn how the criminal justice system works and the outside resources available to victims such as the Family Violence Council, Rape Spouse Abuse Crisis Center and the Friendship Home. Translation of information available by different services has also been a priority. Future plans for the bilingual advocate will be assisting a support group for Spanish speaking domestic violence victims. Auxi has said that this position has changed her life in so many different ways. It has allowed her to interact with people from different cultures and walks of life and given her the chance to expand her skills, communicate more effectively with others and give back to her community.

These positions have created more opportunities for officers and community members to have successful communication regarding law enforcement issues. The volume of calls, inquiries and requests for help is increasing exponentially, demonstrating the great need that our community has for this type of access to the police department. In the end, the different services carried out by these positions seek to fulfill the Lincoln Police Department mission statement which reads, "We, the members of the Lincoln Police Department, working with all people, are committed to providing quality police services that promote a safe and secure community."

En el año 2005 el departamento de policía continuó con sus intentos de alcanzar a la comunidad de habla hispana a través de dos nuevos cargos: el de Especialista en relaciones comunitarias/Intérprete de español que fue ocupado por Erica Birky Ríos y el cargo de Asesor bilingüe en la Unidad de Víctimas y Testigos que fue ocupado por Auxi Mazza.

Erica Birky Ríos llegó al departamento después de haber trabajado como profesora de español y como intérprete de español y francés con las Escuelas públicas de Lincoln. También trabajó como coordinadora del programa contra la violencia doméstica en el Centro Hispano. Este nuevo cargo abarca un amplio radio de funciones incluyendo el interpretar para los agentes de policía y otro personal de este departamento en Lincoln, el responder a las preguntas que algún miembro de la comunidad hispanohablante pudiera tener relacionadas con asuntos policiales, proporcionar información educacional de lo mismo y colaborar con otras agencias judiciales para mejorar el acceso a servicios proveídos en distintos idiomas. En este primer año del nuevo cargo, Erica ha pasado la mayor parte de su tiempo traduciendo documentos claves tales como la boleta de infracción y el folleto informativo sobre los “Servicios Disponibles para Latinas Contra la Violencia Doméstica.” Actualmente, Erica atiende un sin número de llamadas telefónicas por parte de los hispanohablantes, a menudo relacionadas con multas de tráfico o incidentes relacionados con menores. La fase educativa comunitaria de este puesto para prevenir el crimen está en sus etapas iniciales. El enfoque principal de este cargo hasta el momento ha sido proveerles servicios a inmigrantes y refugiados de habla hispana que son víctimas de violencia doméstica. La “Especialista en Relaciones Comunitarias” continuará realizando su labor y brindando nuevos servicios en el próximo año, llevando a cabo una serie de foros comunitarios para personas de habla hispana que contribuirán a educar a los nuevos inmigrantes en relación con sus derechos y responsabilidades dentro de la comunidad. Hay también planes de desarrollar un programa de tutoría y relaciones comunitarias entre voluntarios que vivan en el área y agentes de policía, que deseen ampliar sus destrezas en español practicando con hispanohablantes. En nombre de la comunidad latina, Erica quiere manifestar su agradecimiento con el departamento de Policía de Lincoln por disponer de estos servicios de acceso al idioma español y a su vez, se siente extremadamente privilegiada al estar disponible para asistir a la comunidad con un mejor entendimiento de los asuntos relacionados con la policía.

Auxi Mazza es nuestra asesora bilingüe en la Unidad de Víctimas y Testigos. Auxi, nacida en Rota, España y graduada en la Universidad de Cádiz con un diploma en Historia y otro en Educación Secundaria, ha enseñado cursos de grado escolar en España. Auxi ha vivido en Nebraska durante once años y actualmente se está preparando para realizar un examen de naturalización y convertirse en ciudadana norteamericana. La asesora bilingüe proporciona información a víctimas hispanohablantes de violencia doméstica al igual que a víctimas de cualquier otro tipo de delitos o crímenes. También brinda servicios de intervención en caso de crisis, al igual que asistencia con órdenes de protección. Este año Auxi ha aprendido bastante sobre el sistema judicial y su funcionamiento, así como sobre las diferentes organizaciones y servicios disponibles para víctimas, tales como Family Violence Council (Consejo de la violencia familiar), Rape Spouse Abuse Crisis Center (para víctimas de agresiones sexuales y malos tratos) y Friendship Home (albergue de emergencia para mujeres maltratadas y sus hijos). Las traducciones de información disponibles sobre los diferentes servicios han sido una de sus prioridades. Dentro de los planes futuros para la asesora bilingüe se encuentran el asistir en un grupo de apoyo para víctimas de violencia doméstica de habla hispana. Auxi ha dicho que este puesto le ha cambiado su vida en muchos aspectos diferentes. Le ha permitido relacionarse con personas de culturas diferentes y le ha dado la oportunidad de desarrollar sus habilidades, comunicarse más efectivamente con la gente y aportar servicios a su comunidad.

Estos cargos han creado más oportunidades tanto para los agentes de policía, como para los miembros de la comunidad, para tener una mejor comunicación en relación con asuntos policiales. El número de llamadas, cuestiones y solicitudes de ayuda ha aumentado de manera exponencial, demostrando la gran necesidad que nuestra comunidad tiene de este tipo de acceso al departamento de policía. Al final, los diferentes servicios llevados a cabo por estos cargos buscan satisfacer la misión del Departamento de Policía de Lincoln que dice, “Nosotros, los miembros del Departamento de Policía de Lincoln, trabajando con toda la gente, estamos comprometidos a proveer servicios policiales de calidad que fomenta una comunidad segura y a salvo.”

Expanded Lineups

Anyone who has ever watched an episode of Hill Street Blues or Adam 12 has seen a shift assembly—the gathering of a group of police officers just beginning their tour of duty, when the shift supervisor performs such tasks as announcing directives, making assignments, and briefing the officers on the recent events of note. These kinds of assemblies are all but universal in police departments worldwide.

At our Department, we have always called the shift assembly lineup. Nobody is completely certain why, but there are a couple of competing theories. Up until the late 1970's, at the conclusion of the briefing, the shift supervisor actually had all the officers stand up and form a line for an inspection, which might be the source of the term. Lineups were usually quite boring, sometimes quite funny, and occasionally mildly informative. One thing is certain—they had changed little during the Lincoln Police Department's long history.

In 2005, though, lineup got an extreme makeover. In June, the police department acquired two 50" plasma monitors that we installed in the lineup room. These were donated to us by local financial institutions who were seeking to fill an equipment need for us. The purpose in suggesting the monitors was to enable our shift supervisors (we call them duty commanders) to show visual content from our computer system that would enrich the "talking head" that had sufficed for about a hundred years.

These monitors were connected to a PC at the duty commanders' desk, equipped with a pair of LCDs and running expanded desktop. The content on the plasmas, then, would mirror the content of the duty commanders' desktop. We had a lot of content to show our officers, and in very short order, the concept that had seemed a bit oblique became very apparent to all: rather than just talking about the wanted suspect, we would also click on the link to his mugshot. Instead of just providing the make and model of the car involved in the robbery attempt, we would pull up an image of the same make, model and color from the Internet and fix that in everyone's mind. If an accident was snarling traffic, we would pull up an intersection webcam. The ideas flowed, and within weeks we were enriching lineup with lots of visual content that really improved the usefulness of the assembly.

One problem emerged, though. While the visual content in the lineup room at HQ was great, that's not the only place people assembled at the beginning of the shift. We also had 15 employees gathering at our offsite Narcotics Unit, and 50 employees at our Center Team substation. Moreover, we were in the process of planning more assembly stations in other parts of the City, as we coped with our increasing size and geographic spread. So far, we had dealt with this decentralization with the simple expedient of a conference call and speaker phone—but now, the visual component of lineup had become important.

Chief Casady had been a longtime user of gotomypc, and an occasional participant in meetings using gotomeeting and Citrix. The first web conference using gotomeeting, was conducted and a few short days later, our duty commanders were launching meetings prior to every assembly and officers at all three facilities were viewing the same content. The transition was simple, the cost minimal, and the functionality superb.

When we conduct a lineup at all three locations simultaneously, we call these expanded lineups. We have experimented with various ways of handling the audio portion of our lineups, including inbound and outbound conference calls, and also using one of our encrypted radio channels. For the time being we are sticking with outbound phone calls, but as the number of sites grows, we will probably change to either inbound conference calls or radio.

We have found some other uses for gotomeeting, similar to those previously discovered. We have hosted some visits to our internal information systems from other police departments, for example, and we have invited several other departments from various parts of the country to join our monthly crime analysis meetings. The long term potential to collaborate with other law enforcement agencies in new ways is great, and we do not doubt that gotomeeting will be a valuable tool for us in coming years.

QUALITY SERVICE AUDIT

Since 1993 the Lincoln Police Department has been participating in a survey to gauge citizen satisfaction with the delivery of police services. The Quality Service Audit was developed in conjunction with Gallup, Inc. and it continues to be a valuable tool for both officers and administrators. Officers hired after 1991 are designated as participants in the survey and receive feedback from citizens on their performance. The QSA is a telephone survey which is conducted by student interns and recruit officers. Contact is made with citizens who have had a recent police contact, whether they are a crime victim or the recipient of a traffic ticket. A sample of survey questions and the responses are listed below from the 1,908 surveys which were administered in 2005.

COMMUNITY POLICE TEAMS

NORTHWEST TEAM

The Northwest Team experienced a change in leadership in 2005. Captain Steve Imes retired from the department after 31 years of service and Captain Jon Sundermeier was assigned as his replacement in August of 2005. The annual July 4th celebration, now being held at Oak Lake Park, was the major event in the Northwest Team area in 2005, and went smoothly largely due to the efforts of Sergeant Robert Kubicek and an outstanding team effort.

The Northwest Team focused a great deal of effort on two problems in 2005—wild parties and property crimes. Northwest Lincoln is home to some neighborhoods, in particular the North Bottoms, that have a high percentage of rental properties. Proximity to the UNL campus makes these properties desirable to students, and the inevitable result is a higher incidence of parties in a concentrated area. The annual “party patrol”, which began as students returned for the fall semester, resulted in a large number of arrests for alcohol violations. A number of projects initiated by team officers targeted parties and underage drinking throughout the year. Aggressive follow-up with landlords and property owners has reduced the number of repeat calls at addresses. The effect that wild parties have on neighborhoods continues to be a high priority issue for the Northwest Team.

Officers targeted a number of issues for special attention in 2005, including arrest warrant service, graffiti, problem addresses, and parking and traffic enforcement. There was a particular focus, however, on property crimes. A project targeting open garage doors resulted in over 300 contacts by officers at homes where the garage door was left open—a common method of entry by burglars. The result was a 35% decrease in burglaries over the same period of time the previous year, and property losses were cut in half.

Captain Jon Sundermeier

Despite being displaced by the water main break in September, officers continued to provide high levels of service. Officers worked exclusively out of substations and particular thanks goes out to Wells Fargo Bank. The Wells Fargo substation located at 27th and Superior was home for a few months and the bank was, and continues to be, a generous host.

NORTHEAST TEAM

2005 was a year of excitement, anticipation, and hard work around the Northeast Team. Traffic safety was emphasized by our officers, and was reflected in our enforcement levels for the year. Special team projects were at the forefront, especially during the summer, and were largely designed to impact quality of life issues in the Northeast area. Careful management of resources, along with flexibility on the part of our officers resulted in monetary savings for the department as well as the city at large. All of this occurred while planning for a new Northeast Team police station to be located at 49th & Huntington in early fall of 2006.

Traffic enforcement is a traditional cornerstone of police work. A large percentage of the direct contacts we have with our citizens occur as the result of a traffic stop. An education tool as well as an enforcement device, traffic stops play an important part in maintaining good order in a community. The old saying, “sweat the small stuff and the big things will take care of themselves” comes to mind. The concept of having a full time traffic enforcement officer on staff was continued in 2005. This action along with great effort by the rest of the team resulted in over 18,500 citations, both warnings and officials, being written and issued in Northeast Lincoln. This total was the highest of any geographic team, and second only to the departments Traffic Enforcement Unit. Hopefully, crossing those intersections with automatic signals will be a bit safer as a result.

Always concerned about the quality of life we help to maintain, the Northeast Team targeted several problems with special projects in hopes of having an impact. Such was the case with a multi-week project to remove junk vehicles from the Havelock area. At the same time our ongoing cooperative effort with the city’s Problem Resolution Team resulted in improvements at ten “distressed” properties within team boundaries. We also worked with no less than one half dozen landlords in addressing problems specific to their rental properties.

Captain Doug Srb

While you would expect robust activity from a public agency to come at a cost, we are happy to report that our impact on the budget was modest. In fact, the Northeast Team came in nearly 38% under our overtime budget for the fiscal year. This represented the lowest amount spent by any of the geographic teams.

A full service Northeast Team police station is coming in 2006. The station will be located at 49th & Huntington in University Place. A great effort was made toward planning this facility in 2005, and we are hopeful these efforts will translate to a great facility to service Northeast Lincoln.

SOUTHWEST TEAM

The Southwest Team scrambled this year to keep up with the increasing demands of our neighborhoods. The team is growing rapidly as is its need for police services. This year we continued to meet and work with the neighborhood associations to keep the lines of communication open. The information we shared allowed us to better serve you and our neighbors.

In addition to our neighborhood contacts we continued to collaborate with agencies and organizations that can help us provide long term solutions to the chronic problems experienced by some in our community. Working with the Community Mental Health Center has helped us provide better services for those members of the community who are experiencing a mental health crisis. We joined in a project with CEDARS Youth Services, the Lancaster County Juvenile Justice Coordinator and the County and State Health and Human Services agencies on a program to reduce the reoccurrence of incidents of youth running away from home. Our officers assisted with curfew checks of Drug Court participants to help them along on their road to recovery. We continued with our history of working closely in and with our schools. Unfortunately there are people in our community who prey on our children. This was underscored by reports of an adult trying to lure young boys into his vehicle near one of our elementary schools. Following an exhaustive investigation and lengthy interview by Officer Fluitt and Detective Kennett, Richard E. Merritt Jr. was arrested on 10 counts of Child Enticement.

The officers on our team worked diligently to deter the increasing use and problems associated with drug and alcohol use in our neighborhoods. The time we spent talking with the public paid off in many ways. One that comes to mind was when an employee of a local business called us to report some suspicious activity at a motel. An investigation by Officers Robinson and Roh led to the arrest of five people and the seizure of 469 grams of cocaine and 124 grams of marijuana. Of course none of these things could be accomplished without a high quality, dedicated and motivated group of officers who have taken an ownership in their neighborhoods. It was our pleasure this year to have one of these officers, Mark Fluitt, as the Lincoln Police Departments Officer of the Year. Congratulations and our appreciation go to Mark and his family for his dedication and for the sacrifices they have made as Mark has served us all.

Captain Bob Wilhelm

Despite the difficult work and the distractions of being displaced for months by the rising flood waters in the Hall of Justice our officers were able to keep their heads above water while still gettin' it done. They are truly a remarkable group of cops.

SOUTHEAST TEAM

It is not uncommon to get information about drug activity at a particular address, the question then becomes how to best use that information to build a case and make an arrest. Officer Rick Lutz worked on several projects for the Southeast Team last year using his expertise as a former narcotics officer to help conduct surveillance and coordinate these types of cases. Officer Lutz has become the person that team members go to for advice and assistance to manage area drug cases. His willingness to give the extra effort that this takes is greatly appreciated.

In 2005, thirty-one percent of Lincoln’s total traffic accidents occurred within the boundaries of the Southeast Team; traffic and traffic related issues are synonymous with southeast Lincoln. As a result, time and resources are annually committed to conduct traffic projects with a goal of educating the public and reducing accidents. One such project occurred in the spring of 2005, when several complaints were received about drag racing on South 40th Street. Officer Pat Knopik talked with area residents who were concerned about the problem and they provided him with names of kids living in the neighborhood, they believed were involved. Officer Knopik contacted these kids and their parents to discuss the legal and liability issues associated with drag racing. In addition, Officer Knopik organized both overt and covert enforcement details. Officer Knopik’s efforts on this project helped to eliminate a dangerous neighborhood problem.

Last fall officers working the overnight shift in Southeast Lincoln decided to get creative in battling an old problem, thefts from open garages. Open garage doors account for about half of the burglaries on the Southeast Team and are an open invitation for juveniles who have figured out that most garages have a refrigerator full of beer. Officers Tim Abele, Jayme Krueger and Amanda May took on the challenge of preventing these thefts by educating the public to close their garage doors at night. Officer Abele worked with several radio stations to broadcast public service announcements about this issue over a several week period. In addition, officers on patrol would leave a flier at residences where they found open garage doors, alerting homeowners about the problem to prevent future thefts; in a three month period, crimes of this nature were reduced by nearly 60%.

Captain Kim Koluch

The officers of the Southeast Team look forward to another year of serving its citizens through joint problem solving and collaboration. If you have questions or concerns about your neighborhood you can contact me at 441-7755.

CENTER TEAM

Center Team continues to focus on neighborhood revitalization through two different programs, the Problem Resolution Team and the Free to Grow project. Officers are assigned to work with Building and Safety inspectors on problem properties. When residents or landlords do not “fix” the problems, officers issue a citation, putting the owner into the court system faster than traditional methods. The approach has resulted in a quicker fix on problem properties in neighborhoods.

The Free to Grow project was awarded one of 6 national Met Life Awards for Police/Community work on revitalization neighborhoods. Over 150 police departments were considered and Lincoln received one of the prestigious awards for 2005. Our officers have spent a great deal of time working with neighborhoods solving problems over the last 5 years of the Free to Grow project. Officers have become quite well known for their “cookout” skills during the neighborhood cleanup days.

Officers worked with neighbors concerned because of wild parties and other disruptive activities on their block. Through cooperative efforts they were able to find creative solutions to restore the Quality of Life in those areas. Neighbors came together and met with officers, forming new Neighborhood Watch blocks, they spent time talking to the officers in their area, learning what and how to call in a complaint. Landlords were contacted and worked with LPD and the neighbors to restore the neighborhood to its former quiet state.

Center Team is working on an on-going project that removes guns from homes where a person has been convicted of a domestic violence crime or has a current protection order issued. Officer Sid Yardley reviews all the protection orders and all the arrests for domestic violence and then checks for gun permits. Often the gun permit is granted before the domestic violence arrest or protection order and the guns already exist in the house. Removing these guns is just one more assist to domestic violence victims.

The Unit receives grant assistance from the Nebraska Office of Highway Safety to help its programs achieve success. Some of the major projects conducted by the Unit throughout the year are; Spring and Fall School Zone Selective, Spring and Fall America Buckles Up Children Campaign and the Red Light Running Project.

Members of the Traffic Unit also serve on the following committees: Safe Kids/Safe Communities Coalition, Highway Safety Advocates Group, and the Safety Training Option Program. Officers of the Unit also assist by giving traffic safety presentations to students at various driver education programs throughout the city.

In addition to the traffic related duties, this unit is also responsible for the investigation of serious injury and fatality motor vehicle accidents. Investigator Marlan Hohnstein, one of the eight officers assigned to the Unit, is the lead Accident Reconstructionist for the team. The six members of the Reconstruction Team are highly trained and use specialized equipment to complete the investigation and forensic mapping of traffic crash scenes. Investigator Hohnstein and Investigator Robert Hurley are both certified by the Accreditation Commission for Traffic Accident Reconstruction (ACTAR).
