A MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

Mayor Beutler,
City Council members,
Fellow citizens:

I am pleased to submit the Lincoln Police Department's Annual Report for 2008. This report provides an excellent resource for information about the department's activities, personnel, and accomplishments. It is the latest addition to an impressive historical archive of similar annual reports dating to 1941.

Calendar year 2008 witnessed a noteworthy decline in crime. The FBI Part 1 Crimes, upon which comparative crime data is normally based, fell by 12.9%. Six of the seven crime categories fell. The crime rate (crime divided by population) stands at its lowest level since the 1970's. The actual number of these crimes in Lincoln during 2008 was fewer than in 1986, despite the fact that Lincoln has grown by about 70,000 residents in the intervening years.

It is best to evaluate crime data over a period of years, rather than year-to-year. The 2008 decrease continues a pattern of significantly decline since crime peaked in Lincoln in 1991. The police are not solely responsible for these results. Nonetheless, I think we can be proud that our diligence in criminal investigations, problem-solving approach to policing, collaboration with the community, and our ability to effectively use analysis and information to guide our strategies played a key role in achieving a safer and more secure community.

Crime, though, is only part of what the police department does. The Part 1 Crimes constitute only about 10% of the total police dispatches. Notably, we investigated over 2,000 missing person cases, almost 9,000 traffic crashes, over 20,000 disturbances, more than 2,000 child abuse and neglect cases, and completed over 1,500 mental health investigations. Our society relies upon police officers to deliver a huge range of services, and we must operate in increasingly complex domains.

The key to any organization's success is its personnel. I am blessed to lead one with an outstanding work force characterized by courage, honor, intelligence, and commitment. The pages of this report document some of their outstanding accomplishments. It is my honor to play a small role in helping to set the stage for their excellence.

Sincerely,

Thomas K. Casady
Chief of Police

CHIEF TOM CASADY

EXEMPLARY PROGRAM

STRONGER SAFER NEIGHBORHOODS INITIATIVE

On March 13, 2008 Mayor Beutler launched the Stronger Safer Neighborhoods Initiative, a partnership between government, non-profits, schools, neighborhoods, churches, and the business and development community. The problem oriented policing program is designed to improve neighborhoods and revitalize problem areas. Jon Carlson was hired as a Mayoral Aide for Neighborhood Projects and assigned to the Lincoln Police Department.

Stronger Safer Neighborhoods involves a comprehensive approach that recognizes the connections between crime, poverty, blight, and social behaviors. We cannot arrest our way out of these problems. We have to address the underlying conditions in order to create lasting stability, safety, and health. Program strategies target the overall environment, not just specific criminal activity.

The Stronger Safer Neighborhoods Program has been in effect for barely one year, yet our early successes are exciting.

COMMUNITY RESIDENTS ARE ENERGIZED:

Over 350 people attended our meeting on how to help core neighborhoods - more than 125 signed up on the spot for our volunteer action teams. Business leaders are donating time and materials for clean ups, graffiti removal, and neighborhood improvement projects.

PROPERTIES ARE IMPROVING:

We are working with landlords and property owners to improve housing and address problem tenants. Over 80 property owners attended our landlord meeting, excited and energized to help improve the neighborhood. Good management and safe, clean housing is the only business plan that will succeed in the long haul. We have mailed over one hundred letters to owners of property with repeated police calls. Problem tenants have been evicted as a result. We have increased the fines for housing code violations and are working with NeighborWorks, NIFA, REALTORS, home builders, and private funders to create loans and grants for rehab, deconversion, and repairs.

SAFETY IS UP:

Police officers assigned to the Southwest team have adopted blocks in our focus areas. They are patrolling those blocks, checking on the welfare of residents, and deterring criminal behavior. Inspectors from Building & Safety and the Health Department are being engaged to survey properties in the area for substandard housing and health violations. We have conducted an assessment of all the properties in the focus areas to identify properties in need of repairs and match them with available resources.

Community organizers are going door-to-door, contacting residents and involving them in community building activities like neighborhood clean-ups, school and neighborhood events, family involvement activities, and more.

Our door to door work is creating a fuller understanding of neighborhood residents needs. Our partnerships with schools and human resource agencies are matching services with those needs. We look to expand on that progress by pursuing opportunities to enhance access to healthcare, social services, increase opportunities for jobs and improve safety and health issues of existing housing stock.

- Jon Carlson

UNCOVERING HISTORY

Police work relies on finding that elusive piece of evidence, putting together odd little snippets of information and eventually ending up with a comprehensive story of what happened. Management Services staff and the interns assigned there have been doing much the same thing with pieces of the Lincoln Police Department's history over the last couple of years.

The department's move into the Hall of Justice provided an opportunity to display artifacts from our past, and we have some wonderful old pieces on display. The obvious outcome was a continued quest for a more complete history of the Lincoln Police Department. We became a police department in 1871 and have been fortunate to discover lots of treasures from our past. Photos dating back to the 1800's, negatives, annual reports, handwritten log books, newspaper articles and documents were located and converted to digital images.

Some of the great finds include City Annual Reports dating back to the very first one in 1904. In the report, arrests of "dope fiends" were listed along with a line item budget including costs for hay. Handwritten log books were found that recorded who worked that day and every call for service. We learned how early Lincoln police officers did their job and how differently we do things today. One log entry noted "the shooting wasn't fatal and the bullet the city doctor removed from the victim was safely stored in the bottom desk drawer as evidence."

Retired employees and their families loaned private collections of old detective magazines with articles on LPD's major cases, photos never seen before and other memorabilia to the effort. Then they spent hours pouring over old pictures identifying people, places and activities.

This project has taken us back in time, let us walk with officers who preceded us and provided a fun look at our past. We have no idea when or where it will end but for now it is a great ride with each new discovery more interesting than the last.

The efforts of our interns made the photos, documents and articles available on our web site. Annual reports from 1904 to the present day are available for reading. A short history about the Lincoln Police Department sets the stage. From there, information with photos can be found dating back to the late 1800's. Specific histories of SWAT, K-9, Bike Patrol, and Parking have also been compiled by employees in those areas.

It is a rich look into our past and one that can be enjoyed for years to come. Go to our webpage to start the journey for yourself.

QUALITY SERVICE AUDIT

Since 1993, the Lincoln Police Department has been participating in a survey to gauge citizen satisfaction with the delivery of police services. The Quality Service Audit was developed in conjunction with Gallup, Inc. and it continues to be a valuable tool for both officers and administrators. Officers hired after 1991 are designated as participants in the survey and receive feedback from citizens on their performance. The QSA is a telephone survey which is conducted by student interns and recruit officers. Contact is made with citizens who have had a recent police contact, whether they are a crime victim or the recipient of a traffic ticket. A sample of survey questions and the responses are listed below from the 2,252 surveys which were administered in 2008.

Two thousand and eight was a good year to be downtown. Center Team saw many special events including Nebraska Football, Star City Parade, Ribfest, Haymarket Farmer's Market, and a host of others. These were highly successful events that help make Lincoln Downtown a fun and fantastic place to be.

Center Team officers are a key component in making the downtown special events successful. Their efforts also helped in the reduction of crime, maintaining the peace, and providing quality police services. The Center Team recognizes the important work done by Sgt. Shannon Karl and officers associated with traffic and crowd control before and after Nebraska Football Games. We would also like to express our appreciation to our late night third shift officers for outstanding work. Officers Fankhauser and Sorenson, along with the rest of the third shift, did a great job. Two thousand and eight saw many new faces among the Center Team officers. It also saw the retirements of Sergeant Dennis Miller and Officer Charles Solano. Both had over 30 years with the Lincoln Police Department and they will be missed.

There were continued initiatives by a variety of Center Team officers impacting on the violations of liquor ordinances downtown. These efforts help prevent a variety of problems associated with excessive alcohol consumption. Center Team officers are known for identifying area problems and finding a way to impact those problems. By working closely with a variety of neighborhood groups, business associations, schools, and other organizations, the Center Team officers continue to engage in activities that provide for safety while using resources wisely. Two thousand and nine promises to be a challenge and Center Team officers appear to be eager to meet the challenge.

The Northeast Team enjoyed a very productive year in 2008 while at the same time remaining well within budget constraints. Virtually all areas of measured productivity were up, exceeding our projections as well as our wildest expectations. Contiguous with these accomplishments, we did our best to be efficient and avoid any needless expenditure of resources...the most notable of these being gasoline, vehicles and revenue.

Overall, the efforts expended by the Northeast Team targeting traffic safety may well have been at an all time high in 2008. The actual increases in traffic enforcement eclipsed the 10% projected goal set at the beginning of the year. While projecting official traffic citation totals of about 7,100, the actual total came close to reaching 10,000. Warning citations, projected at about 5,500, exceeded 7,500. Drunken driving arrests projected at a few over 250 came closer to 350 by years end. Northeast officers initiated or participated in no fewer than a dozen special projects designed to improve traffic safety during 2008 as well. The result of all this was a level of reportable traffic crashes that remained flat for most of the year with a trend toward actual decrease by late November.

Traffic activity notwithstanding, criminal investigations and drug enforcement flourished in 2008. Northeast Team projected a 25% clearance rate of Part I crimes (those crimes such as robbery, sexual assault and larceny which require annual report to the FBI). Our actual clearance rate at years end was near 34%, the highest of any of the geographic police teams. Northeast officers remained aggressive on drug enforcement as well, exceeding projected arrests by nearly 7%.

Northeast Team had an eye toward efficiency during 2008. More than 20% of our overtime budget went unspent, especially gratifying given our increase in enforcement levels. A projected "use limit" of nearly 35,000 gallons of gasoline had been set for the year. We actually used less than 28,500 gallons while at the same time eliminating 6 cars from our fleet of police cruisers kept at NE Team Station. This was accomplished through careful car scheduling, use of unconventional assignments, and an appropriately located substation. As you can see, the Northeast Team is doing it's best to "go green".

Earlier this year construction began on an office/retail complex immediately to our West. This construction is an end portion of the University Place revitalization of which Northeast Team Station was a part. With the new year, we look forward to having new neighbors!

NORTHWEST TEAM

One of the Northwest Team goals in 2008 was to impact alcohol related violation and the reduction of alcohol related crashes. Officers John McGahan and Matt Stegman were instrumental in completing a POP Project focusing on random tavern checks of bars located on the Northwest Team. As a result the officers issued numerous citations for various misdemeanor violations, and liquor violations. In continuing the effort to reduce alcohol related crashes, the team officers also conducted a Safety and Sobriety Checkpoint on Cornhusker Highway between the hours of 10:00pm-2:00am. During the detail a total of 663 vehicles passed through the checkpoint and 132 drivers were contacted, resulting in 10 DWI arrests, 19 official citations, 22 warning citations issued, and 3 narcotics arrests. Both projects coupled with the Northwest Team Officers daily proactive traffic enforcement activity contributed to a 6% reduction in motor vehicle crashes.

Officers of the Northwest Team also played an active role in coordinating with the Carol Yoakum Family Center and local Airpark businesses in hosting the 1st Annual National Night Out Against Crime Celebration in Airpark. National Night Out is a night for neighbors and families in the community to step out of their houses to show neighborhood spirit and promote police-community partnerships in the fight for a safer city. The event was successful in gathering approximately 75-100 families who ate hotdogs and celebrated the "Night Out".

The Northwest Teams contribution in impacting the reduction of crime through criminal investigation resulted in an outstanding Part 1 Crimes Case Clearance rate of 28.5%. One of the factors incorporated in the team's high clearance rate was multiple case clearances. To highlight a few cases, Officer Jason Goodwin, Officer David Moody and Officer Frank Foster distinguished themselves on several cases of Larceny from Auto. Both cases were dispatched as in progress calls, requiring other officers of the team to assist in the apprehension of the suspects. Upon apprehension Officers Goodwin, Moody and Foster conducted interviews with the suspects. Due to their persistence and inquisitiveness officers were able to clear a total of 14 cases of Larceny from Auto.

Two-thousand eight was a busy, productive year for the Southeast Team, and a year in which a long term team goal was accomplished. For the first time in recent history traffic accidents on the Southeast Team were reduced. Accident reduction is an ongoing effort for Southeast Team officers since accidents account for nearly 10% of their overall workload. This is a trend we hope to continue and improve upon in the coming year.

Nearly half of all residential burglaries could be prevented if residents could be educated to close their garage doors when they go to work, or go to bed at night. In an effort to raise awareness about this issue, Sergeant Ann Heermann coordinated a project which asked each of her officers to find ten open garage doors, make personal contact with the residents and give them a flier which warns about this type of crime. In conjunction with the fliers, Officer Joe Yindrick worked with our Community Services Unit to mail a letter to all Southeast Team Neighborhood Watch Coordinator's making them aware of this very preventable crime. Efforts in this area have had positive results and will be continued.

This past summer, Officer Todd Groves coordinated a Safety/Sobriety Checkpoint for the team. This project took several months of planning and coordination involving several outside agencies and utilizing personnel from all three shifts. During the course of the checkpoint 368 vehicles passed through, 97 of those were stopped. Survey results of drivers that were stopped at the checkpoint indicated overwhelmingly that the checkpoint helped to deter impaired driving and created a safer environment for motorists. Based upon the survey results, the project was deemed a success and will be repeated in the future.

The biggest change for the Southeast Team in 2008 came in the way of a personnel change. In December, after twelve years as the Southeast Team Detective, Sergeant Erin Sims accepted a promotion within the Lincoln Police Department to become the Identification Lab Manager. This position manages and oversees several important areas which includes; fingerprint analysis, maintenance of the Automated Fingerprint Identification System, document and handwriting comparisons, and running the department's photography lab. Our loss is the ID Lab's gain and we know Sergeant Sims will do a great job in her new position.

SOUTHWEST TEAM

The Southwest Team experienced another very productive and demanding year. The sergeants and officers assigned to the Southwest Team worked extremely hard to impact problem neighborhoods and improve the quality of the neighborhoods. The Southwest Team had a very proactive year arresting a department high 609 DWIs, increasing misdemeanor and narcotic arrests by 10% while reducing accidents on the team by over 10%. Street robberies, assaults, wild parties, and narcotic activity continue to impact the team.

In 2008, Jon Carlson, Aide to Mayor Beutler, was assigned to work with the police department to improve neighborhoods and to coordinate the "Stronger Safer Neighborhoods Initiative". The initiative creates and strengthens partnerships between city departments, private businesses, non-profit agencies, NeighborWorks Inc., neighborhood associations, and other community groups to focus resources into these fragile neighborhoods to revitalize troubled areas. In May the SW Team hosted a very successful landlord meeting aimed at assisting area property owners strengthen and improve their neighborhoods. Officers were also assigned to specific blocks in the "focus area" where they "adopt the block" and met with area residents to work on specific problems that impact their assigned block.

The SW Team focused on problem addresses in 2008 by working with landlords to address the issues. Sergeant John Walsh coordinated a very success problem oriented policing (POP) project by sending letters to property owners informing them of problems or criminal activity occurring on their property. Letters were sent to ninety-three landlords resulting in thirty-seven evictions and a reduction calls for service at these locations. The Southwest Team will continue to engage property owners, business owners, and members of the community to better serve them.

The men and women of the Southwest Team are very committed to serving the citizens of Lincoln. It is a pleasure to work with the dedicated Sergeants, Officers, and the Public Service Officer. We look forward to another year filled with many challenges and the opportunity to dramatically change the quality of life in these valued and historic neighborhoods.

CANINE UNIT

Lincoln Police Department is fortunate to have a Canine Unit with four canines and handlers. In November of 2007, K9 handler, Tom Ward, was promoted to sergeant. This new position required him and his dog, Gino, to retire from the unit. The selection process for a new handler began in the Summer of 2008. Many qualified applicants put in for the coveted position. Ultimately, Officer Chris Vollmer was selected. In September, Officer Vollmer and the Canine Unit's Training Officer, Officer John Clarke, traveled to New Market, Alabama to purchase a service dog. After reviewing many dogs for health, tracking, obedience and protection, a male half German Shepherd, half Belgium Malinois from Slovakia named Brix was chosen. Brix is the 43rd dog to serve in the Lincoln Police Department's K9 Unit.

In the fall, Brix and Officer Vollmer spent 11 weeks at Police Service Dog Training in Grand Island at the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center (NLETC). Brix is certified in narcotics detection and patrol, which includes building searches and tracking. On December 18th, Officer Vollmer and Brix began their career as a team. By year end, they conducted 6 tracks and five searches, including one felony arrest.

With Tom Ward's absence and an injury to handler Officer Urkevich, most of 2008's canine calls were managed by just two handlers. Even with the decrease, the canine unit assisted with 50 felony arrests and 105 misdemeanor arrests. Their involvement also resulted in the recovery of 280.5 pounds of marijuana, 1.4 pounds of cocaine and 13 ounces of methamphetamine for an estimated $487,000 in street value.
