A MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

Dear Citizens of Lincoln, Mayor Beutler,
and Lincoln City Council members,

On behalf of the women and men of the Lincoln Police Department I am pleased to submit the 2018 annual report. The photographs, data and year-end highlights contained in the following pages represent our culture, our identity as community servants and our continued progression towards crime prevention. We are dedicated to using evidence-based approaches that build on organizational strengths and the incredible talents of individual employees. Our staff takes pride and ownership in Lincoln's success. We are humbled by the awesome responsibility given to us by those we serve.

At the core of our success is the trust with those who live and work in Lincoln. Trust allows us to build on partnerships with other government entities, social service agencies, non-profits, schools, private business and most importantly, the citizens of Lincoln to keep Lincoln safe. Those relationships define Lincoln and contribute to the continuing decrease in crime rates and improved perception of the service provided by our agency. We recognize that the Lincoln Police Department is only one component of safety and security.

The City of Lincoln added more than 35,700 citizens and annexed 8.3 square miles in the last decade. This growth objectifies what we hear each day. Lincoln is a great place to live! This continued expanse demands our agency search for efficiency in operations that will allow us to meet performance benchmarks and the expectations of our community members.

Please take the time to dive deeply into the information in this report. It will afford you the chance to know who we are and what our future holds. If questions come from your review, ask. We need your input and your perspective to continually improve. Thank you for the opportunity to serve as Chief of Police

-Jeff Bliemeister

EXEMPLARY PROJECTS

PROJECT LIFESAVER®
Bringing Loved Ones Home
The Original 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization

PROJECT LIFESAVER

In 2018, the Lincoln Police Department and the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office used a generous grant from the Jullia Rose Foundation to partner with the Autism Family Network and bring Project Lifesaver to Lancaster County. Project Lifesaver is a national program that uses locating technology to help law enforcement find individuals who are prone to wandering or eloping. Each transmitter has a unique frequency assigned to an individual and is typically worn around the person's wrist or ankle.

In July, five officers and two deputies completed 20 hours of Project Lifesaver training and became certified as Electronic Search Specialists. Project Lifesaver is just one part of a multi-layer approach the Lincoln Police Department and the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office utilizes to help caregivers and law enforcement identify and interact with individuals who wander or elope. The Safety LNK Wander Flag was created to give caregivers a way to provide relevant information to the Lincoln Police Department and Lancaster County Sheriff's Office about their loved ones. This information, along with a photo of the individual, is instantly available to law enforcement via their mobile data computers should the person go missing.

Another element of LPD and LSO's multi-layer approach involves educating self-advocates. In June of 2018, several Northeast Team officers became certified to teach BE SAFE: The Movie. This training is designed to teach individuals with Autism and other intellectual disabilities critical skills so they can better communicate and interact with law enforcement, especially if they're contacted after eloping. In July, working with the Autism Family Network, the Northeast Team conducted the first of many training sessions of BE SAFE: The Movie.

Project Lifesaver, Safety LNK Wander Flag, BE SAFE: The Movie, and increased training for officers will improve LPD's ability to serve those with intellectual disabilities and their caregivers. LPD hopes to expand Project Lifesaver beyond the Autism community to other individuals who are prone to wandering or eloping.

EXEMPLARY PROJECTS

Mental Health Community Partnerships

Assisting people who live with a mental illness can be challenging. However, over the last two decades, LPD has partnered with several community mental health organizations to improve police training, expand community mental health services, and enhance collaboration between police officers and mental health workers. One example of this partnership is the REAL program, which stands for Respond, Empower, Advocate, and Listen. The REAL program is free, voluntary, with non-clinical assistance provided entirely by individuals who have experience with mental illness.

It works like this: After an LPD officer finishes assisting a person in crisis, the officer may send an email to the REAL program about the incident. Within 24-48 hours, a peer specialist will contact the individual and offer assistance. As the name of the program indicates, peer specialists respond to people after a crisis, empower them by helping them develop long-term mental health plans, advocate for them when attempting to secure resources, and listen to their needs, wants, and frustrations rather than coerce them into decisions.

Since 2017, LPD has also partnered with the Centerpointe Youth Crisis Response Team, who will send out crisis response counselors to assist officers on juvenile mental health calls twenty-four hours a day. The counselors will help the family devise a plan to stay safe for the night, as well as re-contact the family the next day to help connect them to resources for ongoing therapy. In 2018, counselors made 37 field contacts and served 176 juveniles.

Finally, LPD is proud to announce our partnership with Families Inspiring Families (FIF). FIF was founded by a group of parents who had children who faced similar behavioral or mental health issues. Similar to the REAL program, FIF attempts to contact referred families within 24 hours, listen to the parents, and provide peer support for them. In 2018, LPD officers made 72 referrals to FIF.

EXEMPLARY PROJECTS

Training & K9 Facility

In 2018, the Lincoln Police Department K-9 Unit moved into a new facility adjacent to the firearms range. The Unit formerly used a facility owned by the Lincoln Parks and Recreation in Airpark. This K-9 facility was a holdover from when the Lincoln Air Force Base was operational. However, this building had started to deteriorate to the point where it was no longer usable, and LPD eventually abandoned the site as a viable training facility.

In 2017, LPD and the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office began work on a new K-9 training facility located on the grounds of the training campus and firearms range. Construction began in the fall of 2017 and continued through the summer of 2018. The U.S. Navy SeaBees completed a fenced enclosure around the building to provide a controlled outdoor training area as part of the Innovative Readiness Training program.

Finally, on August 1st, 2018, the LPD K-9 Unit moved into its new headquarters. The training facility has 12 indoor/outdoor kennels, a classroom, and grooming facilities for the dogs. The facility is used by the Lincoln Police Department and Lancaster County Sheriff's Office. The site has already been used to host training sessions and seminars for other outside agencies, as well as meet the needs of the Lincoln Police Department.

Emergency Communications Center Renovations

In May of 2018, LPD completed the renovation of the Lincoln Emergency Communications Center (LECC). There were two primary reasons that required a complete remodel. First, the City's planned Motorola radio system required an upgrade of the electrical service in the Center to accommodate the new equipment and technology. Second, the heating and air conditioning system was woefully inadequate, regulating vastly different temperatures across different parts of the LECC and causing occasional computer systems to overheat. In general, with the exception of minor repairs and upgrades after the Law Enforcement and Justice Center flooded in 2005, the LECC has remained largely untouched since 1995.

Given the extensive nature of these upgrades and repairs, the City decided on a complete renovation of the LECC. Communication personnel moved to the back-up site at Fire Station #14 while construction crews tore down the walls and uprooted the floor, rebuilding the entire workspace from the ground up. The brand new LECC features several upgrades. First, the technology will accommodate the new Motorola radio system and other public safety communications technologies, including a new server room. This upgrade gives dispatchers more space at their console while eliminating any ambient noise and heat emitted by the computers. The Motorola system will meet all federal interoperability standards, allowing LPD to talk to other agencies, even those on different radio systems. Additionally, the new system will provide law enforcement with encryption capabilities.

The capacity of the LECC expanded from fourteen consoles to eighteen. Each dispatch console houses eight monitors, ergonomic chairs, and adjustable desks allowing a dispatcher to sit or stand while working. Each console also features climate control settings, including heat and fans. LECC now includes lockers and mail slots located in the break room. The Center features dimmable LED lights, sound-absorbing flooring, and wall, constructed from foam covered in fabric to reduce ambient noise. The back-up site will be upgraded with Motorola consoles at each of the 14 positions. Once work is completed, both sites could simultaneously run their primary and back-up communications centers in the event of a large incident, and up to thirty-two dispatchers could be activated and operating at once if necessary.

LEADS SCHOLAR

Strengthen Science. Advance Justice.

In 2018, the National Institute of Justice selected Officer Luke Bonkiewicz as one of thirteen LEADS scholars (Law Enforcement Advancing Data and Science) from across the U.S. and Canada. The goal of the LEADS program is to bring together law enforcement professionals from all ranks and agencies to develop data-driven, evidence-based policing practices. Previous LEADS scholars have examined the impact of patrol strategies, analyzed violence-reduction initiatives, designed performance evaluations, implemented wellness programs, and overall, infused the policing profession with greater dedication to data and methodology.

Officer Bonkiewicz has combined his formal education in public policy research with the practical knowledge gained through experience as an officer to help improve both LPD and the law enforcement profession in general. He has developed initiatives and identified best practices at the Lincoln Police Department to help reduce racial disparities in our traffic stop data, improve the service we provide to those experiencing a mental health crisis, prevent injury to suspects and officers in use of control incidents, and finally, maximize the retention of our staff. His actions have brought forth changes that are not only measured and analyzed, but also presented in peer-reviewed research, thereby allowing other agencies to learn from LPD. His work is not limited to effecting positive change within the boundaries of the Lincoln Police Department, but also extends to our community partners who share in the ownership of a safe and secure Lincoln.

QUALITY SERVICE AUDIT

Since 1993, the Lincoln Police Department has been participating in a survey to gauge citizen satisfaction with the delivery of police services. The Quality Service Audit was developed in conjunction with Gallup, Inc. and it continues to be a valuable tool for both officers and administrators. The QSA is a telephone survey which is conducted by student interns, volunteers and recruit officers. Contact is made with citizens who have had a recent police contact, whether they are a crime victim or the recipient of a traffic ticket. Officers then receive anonymous feedback from citizens on their performance.

The Traffic Enforcement Team is a unit of the Operations Division. The primary goal of the team is to encourage traffic safety through enforcement of Lincoln's traffic ordinances. The seven-member unit is responsible for traffic enforcement throughout the city. They also present traffic safety presentations to various community groups.

During a normal year, the Traffic Unit issues approximately 60% of the total number of speeding citations department-wide. The unit is also responsible for all of the department training regarding accident investigation, radar certification and DWI enforcement.

In the late 1970's, the Lincoln Police Department discontinued its Motorcycle Unit and debate continued for years about whether they should be reinstituted. That debate ended in 2005, when LPD made the decision to acquire motorcycles to be utilized by officers in the Traffic Enforcement Unit. Officers were certified as Police Motor Operators by Northwestern University's Certified Police Motor Officer Program. On April 18th, 2005, the motors made their maiden voyage on the city streets.

The motor officers are required to certify annually as operators and attend monthly training sessions. As the number of special events and the overall density of traffic have increased in the Capitol City, the need for maneuverability has also grown. The motorcycle officers also provide escorts at special events such as the Lincoln Marathon and the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics.

K-9 UNIT

For many years, canines have proven to be a valuable resource to the Lincoln Police Department. The Canine Unit was formed in the early 1960's and now consists of four canine officers and their partners. Lincoln's canines perform a variety of duties including suspect tracks, building searches, drug detection and open-area searches. The officers and their canines work, train, and live together, which allows for a special bond to be formed between the officer and the canine. This partnership is a tremendous asset when working the streets.

SPECIALTY FUNCTIONS

SWAT Team The Special Weapons and Tactics Team responds to high-risk situations requiring specialized tactics and coordination. The purpose of the team is to accomplish its objectives with minimal risk to officers and citizens.

Crime Scene Technicians Crime scene technicians have developed specific expertise in order to process major crime scenes. In today's world of technology, collecting forensic evidence is becoming more and more important to processing crime scenes. In order to maintain proficiency, the unit trains, at a minimum, nine times a year.

Field Force The Lincoln Police Department maintains a Field Force to provide an organized response to actual or potential disturbances caused by large groups of disorderly persons which cannot be safely resolved by standard response techniques.

Honor Guard The Lincoln Police Department recognizes the need to maintain an Honor Guard consisting of Lincoln Police Department commissioned officers to participate in ceremonial events enhancing the image of the Department or to honor/memorialize a distinguished person or group.

Chaplaincy Corps The Chaplaincy Corps consists of volunteers who serve as a resource to the community when requested by an officer or a citizen in time of personal or family crisis. They also provide guidance, counseling, and comfort to the police and fire personnel.

Lincoln Metro Clan Lab Team This team, consisting of members of LPD, Nebraska State Patrol and Lancaster County Sheriff's Office, assures an organized and well-planned response to the dismantling and collection of evidence at suspected methamphetamine clandestine laboratory operations.

Marksmanship/Pistol Team The Marksmanship Team was established to increase officer awareness of good marksmanship and provide an incentive for officers to attain their maximum potential with side arms. The team travels to compete against other law enforcement agencies across the country.

Accident Reconstruction Team The team consists of a sergeant, a traffic accident reconstruction investigator, and five reconstructionists. After completing a minimum of 240 additional hours of specialized training, accident reconstructionists investigate critical injury and fatal motor vehicle collisions. The team attempts to reduce the number of traffic related deaths in the city through traffic enforcement, education, and partnering with civil authorities to evaluate and assess vehicle roadways.

SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICERS

LPD's School Resource Officers (SROs) have been serving in Lincoln's public schools since 1971. In the spring of 2018, the City of Lincoln and Lincoln Public Schools (LPS) reached an agreement to add six SROs to serve the middle schools in addition to the six SROs already serving in the high schools. As part of the new agreement, the City and LPS signed a Memorandum of Understanding that identified the goals of the SRO program and established a process for evaluating the impact of the program.

SROs are elite officers chosen from a highly competitive selection process. Candidates for the position of SRO must demonstrate not only their law enforcement aptitude, but also their ability to communicate and interact with kids, their community involvement, and their commitment to youth development. In short, those who earn the opportunity to serve as SROs are veteran officers who display a passion to serve and protect Lincoln's children. SROs receive training from the National Association of School Resource Officers, Nebraska Region V Systems of Health, and mandatory in-service training concerning de-escalation, communicating with juveniles, implicit bias, cultural competency, and juvenile mental health. By policy and practice, School Resource Officers employ discretion. However, we train our SROs to recognize that not every school disturbance requires enforcement action or entry into the criminal justice system. Instead, many incidents can be resolved by connecting students to resources, collaborating with school officials, or simply having a conversation with a student. LPD looks forward to continuing to positively impact the lives of LPS students.
