OLD BUSINESS

The final draft of the CPAB Onboarding and Training Manual has been presented, reviewed, and accepted. This was an extensive effort involving many CPAB members, with a special thank you to Cameya, Brittney, and Shirl who contributed greatly to its production and conclusion. Moved and seconded to approve as presented. Motion carried unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS

Review 26-02 and 26-03 – Two complaints this year did not fall with the CPAB’s jurisdiction per LMC 4.08.040. Complaint 26-02 had a criminal charge pending and was notified refiling was an option within 60 days of the final disposition of any court actions. Complaint 26-03 was from an event in August 2025 and outside the allowed timeline. Both events had been reviewed by Professional Standards at LPD and exonerated.

Visit with SRO’s – SRO Al Pickering (currently at Standing Bear) and SRO Courtney Quattrocchi (currently at North Star) visited to share their experience as School Resource Officers. Note: Chief Morrow’s husband, Ofc Kenny Morrow, is also an SRO, currently at Northwest High School.

The SRO’s explained their efforts are not only during school hours but also include at extracurricular events, but they strive to be accessible 24/7 for any concerns at the school that impact the students. The mission is safety and care, not to make arrests or issues citations, which is an incredibly rare occurrence. They tend to be closest with youth who experience problems and it can be perceived more as social work than law enforcement. They described the referral process if more formal action does have to be taken, which can result in diversion or probation. It's most notable that the officer involvement and engagement typically ends up avoiding calls for service or referrals. There is a concerted, sincere, and intentional effort to build relationships, outreach, and to enhance support systems. SRO's do receive extensive specialized training. They are more accessible to youth who may also be victims of crime, where trust to report is essential.

Brittney spoke to how the SRO's work with LPS's Prevention, Accountability, and Restorative (PAR) framework and have established protocols for when its appropriate to call in an SRO, agreeing that working together is of benefit to ensure happy, healthy families with a consistent, balanced response.

2nd Quarter Incident Summaries and Case Review - Sgt Stover reported on LPD's 2nd Quarter (April 1 thru June 30, 2026) IA Case Review, Statistical Summary, Employee Incident Report Summary, and Employee Use of Control Summary.

LPD Summary reports are posted on the Citizen Police Advisory Board – City of Lincoln website.
